Welcome

Dear TUSPM Student:

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine (TUSPM), I extend a warm welcome to you as you embark on a new academic year.

Returning students can expect greater challenges as you progress through a new stage of the curriculum. You are inching ever closer to your goal! Remember to take time for yourself to renew friendships and to maintain perspective amid the chaos of your rigorous academic schedules.

First year students may find their initiation into professional school particularly anxiety-producing. Many of you are new to the area, and most first year students are unfamiliar with the academic demands of a podiatric medical school curriculum. You needn't be fearful. Your academic background suggests that TUSPM is where you belong. Plan your schedule wisely, with an objective toward maintaining balance. You will be establishing friendships while you are here that will last a lifetime.

Try to explore the Philadelphia area. You are within walking distance of the Independence Mall historic district, The Fashion District Mall and numerous local night spots. TUSPM is ideally situated for access to public transportation so that you may take advantage of the galleries, museums, professional sports teams, and other great attractions that our city has to offer. And don't forget about our own Temple Owls sports teams.

Our motto at TUSPM is "Where the Student Comes First." Our staff is sensitive to your concerns, and we are here to assist and counsel you. I encourage you to use the services available to you on the TUSPM, main and Health Sciences Center campuses.

I wish you a healthy, happy, and rewarding academic year. Please do not hesitate to call on us for assistance.

Sincerely,

David E. Martin,

Assistant Dean for Student Affairs

MISSION STATEMENT

INSPIRE. LEAD. HEAL.

The Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine educates a diverse, engaged and highly capable body of student doctors to be ethical, professional, prepared for licensure and entry into post-graduate medical education. We model the commitment we espouse in our students through research, entrepreneurial spirit, and the provision of compassionate, high-quality care to our patients in Philadelphia and beyond, irrespective of socioeconomic background.

VISION STATEMENT

Consistent with the Temple University's founding principles, we will:

- Provide outstanding podiatric education and training that is affordable relative to peer institutions and justifies our students' expenditure of time and resources.
- Increase the body of knowledge of the lower extremity primarily through collaborative, clinical trials-based research, and scholarly publication.

Establish a collegial body of podiatric medical professionals and students who represent and value inclusion and a commitment to caring for underserved populations.

Academic Rights and Responsibilities for Students, Faculty and Administration.

The Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine seeks excellence in the discovery and dissemination of knowledge. Inherent in this pursuit is the necessity for a proper orientation to the way excellence is obtained. It must be gained with the full realization that the future of the institution and profession is borne by the quality of scholarship and intent of such accomplishments. All members of the school community are obligated to adhere strictly to the highest standards of integrity in study, research, instruction, evaluation, and clinical practice.

It is presumed those who instruct and administer observe such standards of integrity. Administrators and senior faculty members are presumed further to encourage these standards among their junior colleagues. Students are presumed to accept the concept of academic integrity and to seek to live by it. Students need the assurance by faculty and administrative action that those who work honestly will not suffer in comparison with the dishonest. Those who cannot or will not adopt the concept and practices of academic honesty do not belong within the school.

Particularly within a professional school environment, the educational process must be perceived as a community enterprise. Interaction among faculty, students and administrators on individual and group levels must be based on mutual respect for each other's rights and needs. Of necessity, this involves professional judgment by faculty in the classroom, and it should encourage reasoned exceptions by students to the data or views offered without penalty.

The community atmosphere described above cannot be attained without a clear understanding of the rights each segment of the "community" possesses, as well as the paralleling obligations each must insure the rights of others. The following code of obligations for students, faculty and administrators provides a model for communicating expectations relating to rights and responsibilities.

I. Student Obligations

- A. Within a professional school the pressures placed on the student are much more demanding than those encountered in previous educational institutions. Despite these pressures, the student has an obligation to exhibit honesty and fairness in relations with faculty, administration, and fellow students, and to respect the ethical standards of the podiatric profession.
- B. To be familiar with all School policies as outlined in the Student Handbook and other publications.
- C. To utilize course lectures by attending and participating in classes at TUSPM to the utmost of one's ability, because, as a health professional, all classroom material eventually presents itself to the doctor through his/her ultimate responsibility to the patient. To maintain a highly professional attitude as well as a professional appearance in accordance with established standards.

- D. To be concerned with and/or take part in, when possible, committee and student government work aimed at functioning with the faculty and administration to improve the educational process.
- E. To participate in the development of self-governing policies for the student body.

- F. To utilize channels of communication when problems arise, and to participate in their resolution when possible.
- G. To recognize faculty members and administrators as individuals with individual responsibilities and goals.
- H. To maintain normal ethical standards for academic and professional conduct including that described in the Academic Standards, Article XIII.

II. Faculty Obligations

A faculty member accepts the obligation in relation to his/her students to discharge duties in a fair and conscientious manner in accordance with the ethical standards recognized within the academic community, as well as those of the podiatric profession.

Without limiting the application of the above principle, members of the faculty also are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner, including the following:

- A. To meet lectures, laboratories and clinical responsibilities when scheduled and on time.
- B. To provide a course syllabus describing course objectives, course content and standards for evaluation (i.e., number of tests or other forms of evaluation and their values).
- C. To be available at reasonable times for appointments with the students and to keep such appointments.
- D. To prepare thoughtful and thorough presentations of material deemed necessary by the school for the awarding of the degree of Doctor of Podiatric Medicine.
- E. To be life- long learners and maintain and update skills in order to provide quality didactic and clinical instruction.
- F. To act as role models and mentors for the professional development of students.
- G. To recognize, remediate and report unprofessional conduct utilizing the Professional Development forms.
- H. To evaluate periodically student progress through use of written reports or examinations and to provide students with these evaluations within a week thereafter.
- I. To submit clinical evaluations within two weeks after the completion of rotations.
- K. To review examinations with students individually or collectively.
- L. To base all academic evaluations upon good faith professional judgment. Evaluations of student performance should be based on materials for which the class has been advised they are responsible.

- M. Academic evaluations should be based only on academic achievement. Factors which may not be used include race, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, political or cultural affiliation, physical or emotional challenges, lifestyle and activities or behavior unrelated to the classroom.
- N. To respect the confidentiality of information regarding a student contained in School records and to refrain from releasing such information, except in connection with intra-School business, or with student's consent, or as may be required by law.
- O. Not to exploit their professional relationship with students for private advantage and refrain from soliciting their assistance for private purposes in a way that infringes on such students' freedom of choice.
- P. To represent properly students and colleagues before professional groups and societies that will have an impact to the present and future of the student.
- Q. To give appropriate recognition to contributions made by students to research, publication, service, or other activities.
- R. To refrain from any activity which involves risk to the health and safety of a student, except with the students' informed consent and, where applicable, in accordance with the school policy relating to the use of human subjects in experimentation.
- S. To respect the dignity of students individually and collectively in the classroom and other academic contexts. Such "respect" assumes concern for the dignity of each student in a manner which exemplifies a future doctor-patient relationship (for example, the reprimanding of student-doctors in the presence of patients is not consistent with this obligation).
- T. To participate in faculty committee assignments and other administrative duties consistent with each member's position and academic rank.

III. Administration Obligations

An administrator accepts the obligation in all relations to discharge duties in a fair and conscientious manner in accordance with the ethical standards generally recognized within the academic community, as well as those of the podiatric profession.

Without limiting the application of the above principle, members of the administration are also expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner, including:

- A. To establish procedures for record keeping that will maintain the students', faculty's, and staff's rights to privacy.
- B. To establish effective channels of communication for use by faculty, students, and staff.

- C. To carry out policies which have been adopted by the appropriate administrative offices within the University as recommended by the faculty, faculty/student committees and administrative officers.
- D. To communicate and clarify School policies and procedures to the community.
- E. To review periodically (or recommend review to the appropriate committees) established policies.
- F. To administer areas of responsibility within approved budgetary limits.
- G. To provide procedures for due process.
- H. To establish and preserve a positive environment within the school that enables everyone to carry out their responsibilities without encountering any disruption or harassment.
- I. To ensure all policies and procedures adhere to the principles of equal opportunity and to initiate affirmative action when appropriate.
- J. To provide staff with periodic evaluations (at least annually) based on good-faith professional judgment of job performance.
- K. To provide faculty with periodic evaluations of job performance (at least annually) using good-faith professional judgment and based on identified criteria.
- L. To properly represent students and colleagues before professional groups and societies that will have import to the present and future of the student.
- M. To give appropriate recognition to contributions made by students to research, publication, service, or other activities.
- N. Administrators should seek faculty and student evaluation of services and performances and provide a mechanism for such evaluations.

IV. Accreditation

The Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine is accredited by the Council on Podiatric Medical Education of the American Podiatric Medical Association and Temple University is accredited by the Middle States Association of Schools and Schools' Commission on Higher Education.

ARTICLE III. POLICY ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE/WITHDRAWAL

The curriculum is designed so that the educational experience is a continual process. Knowledge, skills, and training received in one year provide the background for subsequent years. Ideally, the process should continue uninterrupted. However, it may be necessary for students to request a leave of absence for health or personal reasons. The status of the student upon readmission to the College will depend on the academic standing of the student at the time of leave, the duration of the leave and the reason for requesting a leave and the availability of seats. The student may be asked to repeat some courses or clinical experiences if the leave is for an excessive period. This will be determined by the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs in consultation with the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Grades for courses completed before the leave date or withdrawal date will be recorded on the student transcript.

Leaves of Absence

A leave of absence is required for any term of the academic year for which a student is not enrolled in classes. Students must contact the TUSPM Office of Educational Affairs before the request to discuss options and seek approval.

A leave of absence is an administrative measure granted at the discretion of the Assistant Dean of Educational Affairs. It is used in situations where it is deemed in the best interest of the student and/or the school that the student's medical education be interrupted. A leave of absence may be granted for up to one year. The student may request an extension of a leave of absence for extraordinary, extenuating circumstances.

A leave of absence may be filed through the end of the drop/add period of any given semester. After the semester's drop/add period expires, a student may request a withdrawal from the school. Any student who has withdrawn and wishes to be considered for readmission must apply and follow all the processes and procedures of the regular admissions process.

Leave of Absence Guidelines:

- A. A leave of absence is granted at the discretion of the Assistant Dean of Educational Affairs.
- B. A leave of absence may be granted for up to one year.
- C. In certain exceptional circumstances, a two-year leave of absence may be granted. A written paper may substitute for one (1) of the examinations as long as the weight given to the paper is at least thirty percent (30%) of the final grade.
3. Any student who, because of a certified illness (medical documentation required), fails to take an examination/quiz will be given a makeup examination/quiz at a time and place determined by the instructor.
4. Absence from clinical rotations on the day of an examination or quiz, when the student appears for the examination, will result in a penalty of ten (10) makeup days. The student will be permitted to sit for the examination. Students who miss the entire day because of an excused illness will be required to make up the clinical rotation on a 1:1 ratio. A make-up examination will be scheduled within thirty (30) days and format determined by the instructor (format may differ from the original examination).

B. Administration

1. Type and frequency of examinations shall be described in the course syllabus. In courses of TUSPM utilizes the ExamSoft software. ExamSoft is a safe and trusted software program utilized for test administration around the globe and has been implemented to better serve and prepare our student for online board examinations in the future. Students are expected to utilize University provided iPads on such exams. All exam takers should download exams prior to entering the exam room on exam day. Each exam taker is to have their Temple issued student ID on the table next to them during exams. Prior to leaving the exam room, the exams completion screen must be showed to the exam proctor. Any attempts to jeopardize exam security will be handled with disciplinary action immediately, not limited to expulsion from the University. Backtracking on exams will be allowed for all class levels.
2. All exams will be administered under the Honor Code. Faculty will provide the exam password at the start of the scheduled exam period.
3. During examinations, the only items allowed with you at your testing station are your uncovered testing device and student ID. When applicable, white boards are allowed.
4. Seating charts may be posted prior to the exam; students must sit in the assigned seat. Failure to do so will result in a grade of zero on the examination.
5. Conversation, transmission, or solicitation of any information between students during examinations, regardless of its nature, is forbidden, and will result in dismissal from the examination.
6. The correct interpretation of the question(s) is the responsibility of the student. A student may request questions be checked for ambiguity, incorrect answer, typographical error, etc. If valid, and if necessary, the proctor will announce any clarification to the entire class.
7. Students not taking the exam are not permitted to enter the classroom while the exam is in progress.
8. Exams administered through Examsoft will be graded electronically. In the event an exam question is mis keyed, the question will be keyed correctly, and the points awarded to those who have answered the question correctly. In instances where the question has a flawed stem and/or no possible correct answers, the question will be thrown out with no one receiving points for the exam question. Credit will not be given to all students for flawed question/answer sequences.
9. Any student wishing to challenge an exam question must do so following individual course director/class protocol and within 48 hours of administration of exam question(s) to be challenged. Accepting challenges is at the discretion of the course director/department.
10. Exam reviews will be held according to course director's policy. In the event a course does not have a formal exam review, discuss review option with the course director first, Department Chair by which the exam was administered within 7 days of exam administration. Students will be allowed ten minutes to review their exam under direct supervision. No electronic devices, pens, pencils, or paper will be allowed during the exam review.

C. Procedure for Changing Examination Dates

1. All change of date requests should be submitted to the Assistant Dean of Educational Affairs no later than 14 business days before the scheduled examination.
2. For a change in examination to be proposed to the Course Director, it must be voted upon and approved by 100% of the class.
3. Once unanimous approval is obtained, the course representative will bring the proposal to the attention of the Course Director. The decision to change the exam is solely up to the discretion of the Course Director.
4. If the Course Director agrees, then the course representative should notify the Assistant Dean of Educational Affairs of the intent to change the examination.
5. If approval is authorized notification will be given to the Chairperson, administrative assistant, computer services and the IT department by the Office of Educational Affairs.
6. Any disregard for the policy may result in rejection of the request.

D. Learning Disability

1. Students with a documented and approved disability who require special accommodation will be permitted additional time.
2. Learning disabilities include, but are not limited to, dyslexia and attention deficit disorder. The decision to grant any accommodation based on the impact of a disability rests with the office of Disability Resources and Services (DRS). Therefore, any student who has a need for special accommodation based on the impact of a disability should immediately contact Disability Resources and Services at 215-204-1280 in 100 Ritter Annex. Once the student has received approval from DRS, the student should then provide the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs with a copy of their DRS approved paperwork for accommodation. The student is also required to present a copy of their DRS approved paperwork for accommodation to each course director at the start of each course.
3. For students requiring additional time for written examination, the accommodation established by the National Board of Podiatric Medical Examiners and the Medical College Admission Test Board will be adopted, namely, up to 1 ½ the amount of time normally allotted for a given examination will be permitted. Examinations are to be arranged directly with The Office of Educational Affairs.

E. Board Preparation - APMLE Part I Examination

To best prepare students for passage of the APMLE Part I board, two mandatory pre-tests will be given prior to sitting for the board. Students in the second year will sit for an initial board pre- test in early April with a second administration in late May or early June. Furthermore, mandatory board pre-tests will be administered from January to May. Anyone failing the course will be required to pass the course prior to sitting for the APMLE Part I Board administration.

ARTICLE VII. STUDENT EVALUATION

- A. Student clinical performance is evaluated in the third and fourth years by a uniform college Student Evaluation. The structure of this form will be available to the student body for study at the clinical departments.
- B. Course grading will be completed as follows:
 - 1. Didactic/lecture courses for the first three years are to be reported as numerical grades on official transcripts. The passing grade in all courses is 70. Clinical practice and Externships will be shown as pass/fail, as will elective courses.
 - 2. Class rank will be based on grades achieved in didactic/lecture courses and will be reported as numbers. However, class rank will not appear on the transcript. This information will be released (i.e., to residency programs) upon authorization by the student after receiving an official request for the information.
 - 3. GPA's will be shown on the transcript.
- C. Clinical evaluations are provided within 60 days of the completion of the rotation.
- D. In didactic courses, incomplete (I) grades must be converted to a specific grade within 30 days after the course is completed. Incomplete grades not corrected within the 30-day period will be converted to failures.
- E. An incomplete (I.) in the Podiatric Medicine, Podiatric Orthopedics and/or Podiatric Surgery clinical rotation must be removed before graduation.
- F. Performance on external rotations is evaluated and graded on a pass-fail system. Grades are recorded on transcripts. See fourth year grading, incompletes, and failures.
- G. Failure of clinical rotations must be successfully completed before graduation.
- H. Students are responsible for reviewing grades in banner and notifying course director for missing or inaccurate grades at the conclusion of each class.

ARTICLE VIII. PROMOTIONS

- A. Students who fail 3 or more courses or any combination of three didactic courses or rotations in Years 3 and 4 are automatically dismissed from the school without benefit of sitting for re-examinations. Such dismissals may only appeal to the Dean in writing within 10 business days.

Students who fail less than the dismissal threshold of attempted courses and/or rotations (see above) are permitted to take re-examinations in failed courses. Students who fail any re-examination are automatically dismissed from school. Students may appeal such dismissals to CAPS. The Committee may uphold the dismissal or allow the student to repeat the entire year. If failures involve clinical activities the involved students must appear before CAPS; the Committee may elect to allow students to repeat failed rotations or dismiss them from the school.

All CAPS decisions may be appealed, in writing, to the Dean within 10 business days. The Dean may overturn CAPS decisions but their prerogatives for alternate actions are limited to those described above. Students who meet any criteria for dismissal from the school are ineligible for leaves of absence until their appeals to CAPS or the Dean, if applicable, have stayed the dismissal.

- B. First, second-, and third-year students who are eligible for re-examinations will be allowed the opportunity of one re-examination in each course failed. The highest recorded grade allowed for a reexamination will be a 70.
- C. Second year students who have not successfully completed all courses tested on the National Boards Part I will be ineligible to take Part I of the National Boards.
- D. A student will be promoted only upon satisfactorily passing all clinical rotations. A failure in any clinical rotation must be remediated within 30 days of notification of failure, including the summer rotation (third and fourth year students). A failure in any clinical rotation must be remediated prior to the award of the degree.
- E. Failure in a clinical rotation for a second time may result in a repeat of the entire year's work or dismissal from the College, both at the discretion of the faculty.
- F. Students who have not completed course, clinic, externship and/or clerkship requirements will receive either a failure or an incomplete. The decision will be made by the faculty member and will depend on the course requirement.

- G. No student will receive credit for rotations in which insufficient patients or patient contacts are logged. Such rotations must be repeated in their entirety and all patient contacts logged to receive credit.
- H. Fourth year students will not graduate until clinic/conference absences, log/evaluation program, and related items have been satisfactorily completed and/or received by the clinical department chairperson (or designee).
- I. No student will graduate or be promoted to the succeeding year without fulfilling all financial obligations to the school.
- J. No student will graduate without passing Part I and sitting for part II of the National Boards of Podiatric Medical Examiners.
- K. Barring extraordinary circumstances, students must sit for the APMLE Step 1 examination when first eligible to do so, usually during the summer after the second academic year. Students who do not sit for and pass the summer administration are banned from clinical training in any venue until after they have sat for a re-examination. Once such students have sat for a repeat examination, they will be allowed to return to clinical training on a provisional basis. Students are subject to academic dismissal at the end of December of their third academic year if they have not successfully passed the APMLE Part I examination prior to this time. Alternatively, such students may request leaves of absence while they prepare for future administrations of the examination. Students in the latter category will be considered for reinstatement after the school receives verification that they have passed the APMLE Part I provided that they can still complete the requirements to earn their Doctor of Podiatric Medicine degrees within six enrolled years.

ARTICLE IX. RE-EXAMINATIONS AND REPETITION OF COURSES

- A. If a first, second- or third-year student qualifies for a re-examination (see ARTICLES VIII and IX), the examination may be taken only in the period set aside for that purpose.
- B. Re-examination policy:
 - 1. Eligible students will be given one (1) re-examination per course.
 - 2. First, Second-, and Third-year students who are eligible for re-examinations will be notified by the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs.
 - 3. Arrangements and appropriate follow-up for assistance remain the responsibility of the student.
- C. In the first, second and third years, failure to pass a re-examination may result in dismissal, repeating the course, two or more courses, or the entire year -- all at the discretion of the Committee on Academic and Professional Standards (CAPS).

- D. Students who fail a course but subsequently pass it on re-examination will receive a transcript grade that represents both their original failed grade and their grade on the re-examination. If a student fails the re-examination, the transcript grade will reflect the actual grade earned on the re-examination. If the student passes the re-examination, the transcript grade will reflect a grade of 70. However, when calculating the student's cumulative grade point average and class rank, the failed course grade will be used.
- E. In instances of repeating the full course requirements of an entire year, the transcript will reflect the year is being repeated. The grade earned the second attempt will be recorded and be used to calculate the grade point average and class rank if academic forgiveness is granted. Academic forgiveness can only be granted once per professional school degree and is not guaranteed
- F. The Committee on Academic and Professional Standard (CAPS) shall, at its discretion and with the approval of the faculty, allow a student to correct failing grades by repeating a course, in which case the grading standards set forth in Section 4 of ARTICLE X shall apply; or may require that the entire course requirements for the year be repeated in which case the grading standards of Section 5, ARTICLE X shall apply. In either instance, the student's class rank for the year and as a cumulative GPA will be established within the new class, of which he/she has become a member.
- G. Failure to sit for a re-examination unless excused in advance by the course instructor will result in a failure for the examination.

ARTICLE X. REPETITION OF A YEAR OR PORTION OF A YEAR

- A. A student required to repeat any year, or a portion of a year will be placed on academic probation. Failure of a course or clinical rotation while on probation shall result in dismissal. Grades will be reviewed at the end of each course by the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs and CAPS. First year students repeating a year may not be eligible for re-examinations. CAPS will review each repeating student's grades to determine eligibility for summer school or re-examinations.

ARTICLE XI. MAINTENANCE OF STUDENT PROFESSIONAL ACADEMIC STANDARDS AND CONDUCT

- A. If suspicious or questionable conduct is observed during the administration of an examination, the following action may be taken by the faculty:
 - 1. Elect the option of not informing the student until after the test is completed.
 - 2. Confront and inform the student that they are engaging in a suspicious activity (describe it).
 - 3. If the above activity continues, the instructor may remove the examination paper, and, at the discretion of the instructor, proceed as follows:
 - a. give a zero for the examination, or give the re-examination for the material covered for the examination in question, or bring charges to the CAPS committee.

- B. Regardless of any of the above actions, the incident is to be reported to the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs.
- C. While all cheating offenses must be reported to the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs, a second offense by any student will automatically require a hearing before the CAPS Committee.
- D. In rendering a decision, the responsibility and obligation of the CAPS committee is to ensure that due process is followed.
- E. Each instructor, with the department Chair, is responsible for dealing with violation of these standards consistently, including a charge against the student.
- F. If a student observes suspicious or questionable conduct by another student during an examination, they must notify the Course instructor, department chairperson or Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs.
- G. Students found guilty of complicity during an incident of ethical or professional misconduct will be subject to discipline according to the Honor Code.

The instructor can immediately act without personal warning in any situation where the instructor has no doubt that a violation has occurred. The written statements in this section are adequate warning to the student regarding policy concerning unethical conduct.

If questionable conduct including unethical behavior is suspected or observed surrounding any clinical experience the faculty member or clerkship director should contact the Office of Educational Affairs. The Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs may bring the issue to CAPS and take other punitive steps outlined in the Externship Manual.

Article XII. PROBATION

- A. A student may be placed on probation for the following reasons:
 - 1. Repeating a year or portion of a year of study.
 - 2. Unprofessional conduct as defined in the Rights and Responsibilities Section and ARTICLES XIV and XV of the Student Handbook.
- B. A second offense while on probation shall result in the suspension or dismissal of the student.
- C. A student may not graduate from the College while on probation.

ARTICLE XIII. SUSPENSION OR DISMISSAL FROM THE COLLEGE

- A. At the end of each course, grades will be submitted to the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs.

1. The Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs will review the grades of each student. If a student is in academic difficulty, the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs will consult with the involved faculty member(s). Following the consultation, a decision will be rendered by the Assistant Dean according to guidelines for academic performance outlined in the Student Handbook.
 2. Action taken by the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs against a student may be appealed, by the student, to the Committee on Academic and Professional Standards.
- B. Students are expected to maintain ethical standards of academic and clinical professional conduct. Violation of the standards may subject a student to suspension or expulsion from the college.
- C. It must be understood clearly by all students that the faculty and administration of the College have the authority to drop any student from the rolls, or to refuse readmission at any time prior to graduation if circumstances of legal, moral, health, social or academic nature (i.e., examination improprieties) justify such an action. In such circumstances, normal due process will be followed.
- D. A decision or recommendation for "dismissal" shall mean that the student is expelled and excluded from enrollment in the College. 1st year students may make an application to the College only after one full year from the time of dismissal and be subject to the selection process of the Admissions Committee.
- E. The word "Dismissed (and date of official dismissal)" shall be printed on the transcript in the appropriate year and shall remain on the transcript even if the student is readmitted.
- F. A decision or recommendation for "suspension" shall be understood to mean that the student is excluded from enrollment in the College for an expressed period, after which time the student may be reinstated into full enrollment. The letter of suspension shall be issued from the Office of the Dean and shall indicate the duration and dates of the suspension status, the conditions which will need to be satisfied for reinstatement, the time allowed for remediation of the conditions leading to the suspension and the date of expiration of the status after which the student shall be understood to be in a status of dismissal by default.
- G. A student reinstated after an official suspension period shall be considered in a probationary status for one year following his/her reinstatement and shall be subject to that status' conditions.
- H. A student suspended shall have the word "Suspended" with the dates indicating the duration of that status printed on his/her transcript.

ARTICLE XIV. APPEALS

- A. Academic decisions may be appealed by students, in writing, to the Committee on Academic and Professional standards within ten (10) working days after a decision on grades or disciplinary action has been taken by the faculty member. The person(s) making the appeal must be able to demonstrate sufficient cause for the appeal. Cause includes, but is not limited to:
1. an individual problem that warrants consideration
 2. certain relevant evidence was not reviewed.
 3. The sanction imposed was not in keeping with the gravity of the offense based on previous College procedures and policies.

B. Decision of the CAPS

A student or faculty member may appeal against the decision of CAPS by stating so in a letter to the Dean within ten (10) working days after the decision has been formalized in a letter. Students having failed more than the allotted number of courses may not be granted an appeal above that of the CAPS decision secondary to poor academic performance.

The person(s) making the appeal must be able to demonstrate one or more of the following:

1. that he/she has not received due process
2. that certain relevant evidence was not reviewed.
3. that the sanction imposed was not in keeping with the gravity of the offense based on previous College procedures and policies.

The appeal shall be limited to a review of the full report of the CAPS for the purpose of determining whether the Committee acted fairly considering the charges and evidence presented at the hearing. The Dean may accept the report, change the sanction imposed, dismiss one or more of the charges entirely or impose additional restrictions.

The Dean will send notice of their recommendation to the student, to the Chairperson of the CAPS, the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, the Director of Student Affairs, the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs, and a copy for the student's file.

C. Appeal of A Grade

1. Only a final course grade may be appealed. Concerns regarding individual assignments such as examinations, term projects/papers, lab grades, etc. are to be handled between the course instructor (or coordinator) and the student.
2. The appeal of a final grade must be of a substantive nature. The written appeal must contain material to support the student's contention of inappropriate grade assignment and must identify the specific outcome the appellant wishes to effect, with evidence to support the desired outcome.
3. Procedure: The following procedure is a student-initiated one and the responsibility to keep the action in progress rests primarily with the student. It is understood that the time limit stated must be adhered to and that in the case of pending graduation this procedure should be made more expedient through the cooperation of all parties involved.

The following interpretations are used:

1. "Working days" refer to the regular work week; it does not include weekends, or any holidays recognized by Temple University.
2. "Interested parties" refers to the faculty member assigning the grade and the student appealing the grade.
If the interested faculty member in an appeal is administratively involved (a Department Chair or Dean) in any of the following steps; the next highest University authority shall designate an appropriate faculty member to carry out the responsibilities of that step.

Step 1

To appeal for a final grade, the student must make an appointment and meet with the faculty member(s) assigning the grade within the first ten (10) class days of the next regular trimester (fall, winter, or spring). During this meeting, the student should state the evidence and reasons for the student's perception of an unfair grade assignment. The instructor will review the matter, explain the grading procedure used and show how the grade in question was determined.

The faculty member will promptly tell the student of his/her decision, either orally or in writing.

If a student fails to meet at the arranged time, without good cause, the appeal will be determined against the student. Failure of the faculty member to meet at the agreed-upon time will automatically take the procedure to Step 2.

Step 2

If the student is dissatisfied with the faculty member's decision at Step 1, the student may appeal to the departmental Chair. This appeal must be in writing and must contain information that describes the substantive nature of the appeal. The appeal must be made within 5 working days of receipt of faculty member's failure to comply with Step 1. A meeting with the Chair must then be set up. The Chair may request that the faculty member assigning the grade be present. If a student fails to meet at the arranged time, without compelling cause, the appeal will be determined against the student.

The Chair will try to resolve the dispute at this level, through separate or joint meetings with the students and faculty involved. The Chair may not make a recommendation; however, it is not within the purview of the Chair to change a grade assigned by a faculty member.

Step 3

If the student is still dissatisfied, the student may appeal in writing 5 working days of the conclusion of Step 2 to the Committee on Academic and Professional Standards (CAPS), who will review the case. The CAPS will attempt to resolve the dispute through a joint meeting with the student and faculty members. The CAPS will make a recommendation; however, it is not within their purview to change the grade.

Step 4

If the student still is dissatisfied, the student may appeal in writing within 3 working days of the conclusion of Step 3 to the Dean, or his designee, who will review the case. In most instances, the appeal procedure will not go beyond this level. The Dean may request to meet with the student and/or faculty member or may decide the appeal based on the information before him/her. The Dean, or his designee, may attempt to obtain an agreed-upon resolution, or may simply decide whether the grounds for appeal require an action different than that originally taken by the faculty member. (However, the Dean may not unilaterally change a grade assigned by the faculty member.)

Review and action, if any, by the Dean is the final step in the grievance process.

ARTICLE XV. PROCEDURE FOR STUDENT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REPORTS

This process establishes a system for monitoring student behavior identified as detrimental to professional development.

- A. Orientation sessions will be held with the faculty and the students to explain the Professional Development Report system. Additional forms will be available at the Educational Affairs office.
- B. When a faculty member has observed behavior in a student that has a negative effect on the student's professional development, the faculty member should fill out the Professional Development Report, providing as much information as possible. Professional Development Report Form 2023 .pdf
- C. The Report will then be submitted to the Office of the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs and should be marked "Confidential". A copy of the report will also be sent to the student. The student may respond in writing addressing the incident. This response will become part of the file.
- D. The Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs will review the report. These reports will then be kept in a confidential file in the Dean's office. These files will not be part of the student's permanent records or transcripts. The files will be monitored by the Assistant to the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs, and the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs will be alerted when a third Report has been submitted on any one student.
- E. Upon the receipt of a student's third Professional Development Report, the Dean will review the forms and may submit the information to the Committee on Academic and Professional Standards (CAPS) for their consideration.
- F. The student will be notified by the Chairman of CAPS through the established procedures that his file is being reviewed by CAPS, and the student may come to the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs' office to review his file.
- G. The Committee will then decide what action should be taken. The student being considered may appeal against the decision of the Committee through the appeal process currently in place.
- H. The Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs maintains the right to exercise discretion with this policy. For example, the Dean may, upon receipt of a single Report, refer the matter to the CAPS if the incident warrants immediate attention.

ARTICLE XVI. PERSONAL APPEARANCE

- A. Upon acceptance and enrollment in this School, a student becomes not only a member of the college community, but also a member of the profession of podiatric medicine. In the process of becoming a doctor, a student begins to earn the respect of the public. This respect, which is part of the essence of trust and confidence that a doctor must receive, depends on many factors, not the least of which is the personal appearance of the student.
- B. A student's appearance and grooming can create a positive or negative impression on the public, including patients and visitors to the College. It is important for all students to present themselves in a well-groomed manner. An unfavorable impression can reflect poorly not only on the student, but also on the faculty, the College, and the profession.

- C. For these reasons, the college community (i.e., the students, faculty, and administration) has formulated a set of guidelines on personal appearance. Adherence to these guidelines will nourish a healthy feeling of pride and self-esteem among all members of the college community. These guidelines are:
1. A beard or mustache will be acceptable only if it is reasonably short and neatly trimmed.
 2. Students are expected to dress neatly and comfortably in the classroom. In public areas, all students must wear appropriate attire, such as sport shirt/sweater and slacks, blouse/sweater and skirt/slacks, or a dress. Scrubs are only permitted in certain areas of the Foot and Ankle Institute (FAI), and entry to the FAI requires specific attire including a collared shirt or turtleneck, a clean white clinic jacket, and closed-toe shoes. Blue jeans are not allowed in the Institute. Instructors may grant temporary exceptions to this policy in exceptional circumstances, but they must provide justification for doing so.
 3. Students must always wear the official School ID card on their white jacket or clothing.

ARTICLE XVII. GRADUATION

- A. Candidates for the degree of Doctor of Podiatric Medicine from this School must have completed the fully prescribed course of study for the degree and must be certified by the faculty as having successfully met the evaluation procedures required by that body. To receive a degree, every candidate in the judgment of the College must possess the personal qualifications and attributes necessary to engage in the practice of podiatric medicine. Delay of the conferring of a degree to any candidate may occur when the faculty of the College has not certified a student for graduation because in its discretion such a student is deemed unfit for the practice of podiatric medicine.
- B. No student will graduate without first fulfilling all financial obligations to TUSPM.
- C. A fourth-year student may receive a diploma representing his/her graduating class provided all academic obligations to the College can be scheduled to be satisfactorily completed by September 1st following graduation. Should it become evident that these obligations cannot be satisfied until on or after September 1st, the student will graduate with the following year's class. In such cases, the student will participate in the appropriate graduation exercises.

D. Requirements for Graduation

To qualify for graduation a student must:

1. Be at least twenty-one years of age.
2. Have completed the prescribed four-year curriculum to the satisfaction of the faculty.
3. Have attended at least the last two years of the program "in residence" at the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine.
4. Must have passed Part 1 of the National Board of Podiatric Medical Examiners examination and records sent to the Registrar.
5. Having attempted Part II of the National Board of Podiatric Medical Examiners and records sent to the Registrar.

E. Requirements for Licensure

Requirements for licensure vary from state to state, and students are urged to become acquainted with the general and special requisites for practice in the state of intended practice. Information may be obtained by contacting the State Board of Podiatry Examiners in the appropriate state capital city. Overview can be obtained from the federation of podiatric medical boards. <https://www.fpmb.org/>

ARTICLE XVIII. INTERRUPTION OF STUDY

Upon returning to their studies after any interruption, including leaves of absence, students must meet the current requirements in effect at that time.

FOOT AND ANKLE INSTITUTE

This section is intended to serve only as a brief overview of the Foot and Ankle Institute. It includes an outline of the organization and structure as well as defines the policies regarding students.

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Institute is to train podiatric medical students and to provide quality foot and ankle medical and surgical care for the community.

II. ORGANIZATION OF THE INSTITUTE

The Institute is organized into three clinical departments: Podiatric Medicine, Biomechanics and Podiatric Surgery. Each of these departments function separately yet are interrelated and a description of each follow. In addition to these three departments, there are several diagnostic and therapeutic services, all playing an important role in the diagnosis and treatment of podiatric patients. These diagnostic and therapeutic services include: X-ray, Gait Study, Physical Medicine, Vascular testing, Sensory testing and the Orthotic Laboratory.

Patients are examined and treated through the interaction of 3rd/4th year students and residents with the clinical faculty. There are three patient care models within the Foot and Ankle Institute.

III. FOOT & ANKLE INSTITUTE PROCEDURES

A. Departmental Structure

1. Patients are scheduled according to a departmental structure. Evaluation and management of primary foot and ankle problems within specialty sections:
 - a. Wound Care Podiatric Medicine
 - b. Biomechanics/Orthopedics Radiology
 - c. Surgery
 - d. Physical Therapy

B. General Regulations and Responsibilities

1. All patients in the Foot and Ankle Institute are cared for through the interaction of podiatric medical students with the clinical faculty.
2. The faculty clinician is the party responsible for each patient under their care. He/she reviews all patients' histories, lab studies and x-rays, examines the patient, and prescribes treatment. The clinician supervises and/or performs the prescribed treatment. The clinician must be always present for consultation and technical help and review the treatment before the patient is discharged. Students are not allowed to treat patients without a clinician present. Anyone found in violation of this will be subject to disciplinary action.

3. Students must wear white coats with name tags. Men are to wear collared shirts or turtlenecks. All students must be neatly dressed and behave in a professional and decorous manner. Dungarees, shorts, sneakers, and sweat clothing are expressly prohibited during all hours when patients may be scheduled in the clinic. Clean and/or polished shoes not tennis shoes or work shoes and for safety purposes, closed toe shoes are to be worn. Scrubs are not permitted to be worn during FAI clinic sessions that include patient interaction at any FAI sanctioned site, other than wound care.
4. It is the responsibility of the student to maintain his treatment station within a module and to follow proper infection control procedures.
5. There is no eating, drinking, or smoking within treatment areas or hallways of the Foot and Ankle Institute.
6. Patients should not be left unattended in a raised or tilted treatment chair. Additionally, children should not be left unattended in treatment rooms or anywhere in the Foot & Ankle Institute.
7. All sharps (needles-scalpels) should not be left unattended with a patient in the room. (Dispose of appropriately if used, return to the appropriate location if unused).
8. At no time should students copy patient charts or x-rays. All authorized copies will be made by the appropriate department (Medical Records or Radiology), with proper authorization.
9. Prompt completion of electronic medical records (EMR) is required in all Foot and Ankle Institute areas.
10. No x-rays may be removed without proper authorization and must be returned to medical records. Failure to do so may cause suspension from the Foot and Ankle Institute.

C. Foot and Ankle Institute Operations

1. Medical appointments are scheduled during the following time slots (first appointment time to last appointment time). Appointment hours are subject to change without notice and student doctors are expected to stay until all patients have been treated and discharged.

Monday	8:30 AM – 3:30 PM
Tuesday	8:30 AM – 3:30 PM
Wednesday	8:30 AM – 3:30 PM
Thursday	8:30 AM – 3:30 PM
Friday	8:30 AM – 3:30 PM

2. Patient Care Sections

Biomechanics/Orthopedics

Wound Care

Surgery

Radiology

Clinical rotations are departmentalized with 3rd and 4th year students working jointly all year.

IV. DEPARTMENT DEFINITIONS/EVALUATIONS

DEPARTMENT DEFINITIONS

A. Podiatric Medicine

This area of the Foot and Ankle Institute treats all patients in need of podiatric attention, exclusive of surgical intervention or Biomechanical care. The Department addresses itself therefore to conditions for vascular, neurologic, dermatologic, or medical care, as would a general podiatric practice. The Medicine department is also responsible for the following areas: Wound Care Management, Peripheral Vascular Disease, Neurology, Dermatology, Radiology, Arthritis and Pain Management.

B. Podiatric Biomechanics/Orthopedics

The Department provides comprehensive examination, diagnosis and treatment of musculoskeletal diseases and deformities of the lower extremity by nonsurgical and biomechanical means. The Biomechanics/Orthopedics department is also responsible for Gait Study areas of the Foot & Ankle Institute and Orthotics Laboratory.

C. Podiatric Surgery

This section is responsible for the pre-op assessment and post-op management of surgical patients.

EVALUATION

1. At the end of each clinical rotation, students in the Foot and Ankle Institute receive a written evaluation. The purpose of these evaluations is to provide feedback on the students' professional progress and help resolve any issues they may be facing. Clinicians are available to discuss their evaluations with students and provide suggestions for improvement at any time. These evaluations are confidential, and therefore, copies will not be provided by department secretaries. However, students can easily access them for review upon request.
2. To pass their monthly rotation, all students are required to complete an evaluation of both their assigned rotation and the faculty. This evaluation must be submitted upon completion of the rotation.
3. A dean's letter will be placed in all student's files during students third/fourth years to be utilized by residency programs to further assess student clinical performance.

I. ATTENDANCE POLICY

The required timing, length, and type of clinical experience during the fourth-year program may change because of curricular revisions. Amended clinical education requirements will be distributed as they are approved. Offsite clinical experiences may be assigned at any time during the 3rd year and students are required to have independent private transportation by the beginning of the 3rd year. Inability to commute to assigned sites does not constitute excused absence or change site assignments.

A. Attendance is required unless approved by the Medical Director.

1. Excused Absences

Excused absences include approved sick days and vacation days. Attendance at seminars or conferences and volunteer activities does not automatically constitute an approved absence. Students requesting to represent TUSPM in sanctioned activities (to include posters, presentations, etc.) must be approved by the Medical Director. All excused absences beyond the student's vacation balance must be made up. In case of illness, the Department Chair's office and the Medical Director's office must be notified by 8:00 a.m., or as soon as possible of the impending absence. The Department Chair or the Medical Director may request medical documentation of sickness.

Failure to notify the Department Chair's office and the Medical Director will result in the absence being considered unexcused and requiring make-up on a five-to-one basis.

All absences from allied facilities or external assignments under the Departments of Biomechanics, Medicine or Surgery will be counted as Foot and Ankle Institute absences and will be handled the same way as the above absences. All makeup sessions must be completed during unassigned time, e.g. vacation periods.

B. Lateness

A late mark will be given to any student who is not on the Foot and Ankle Institute floor within the first ten minutes of the clinic session. Excessive lateness may result in failure of the rotation.

C. Vacation Days

Starting with the Class of 2025 and beyond, students will receive 20 days of leave from clinic during their third and fourth academic years. These days can be used as vacation time and/or program visitation. If a student exceeds their available number of vacation days, including penalty days (see below), all excess days must be made up after commencement. Making up days in advance is not permitted. Vacation days are not guaranteed and cannot be used during rotations outside of the Foot and Ankle Institute.

To take time off from clinic, students must schedule and receive approval in advance, barring illness or other emergencies. Approval is subject to satisfactory student numbers remaining in the assigned modules on the days of the proposed absences and other factors and is not guaranteed. Students are responsible for verifying approval before making plans to be away from clinic. Calling out the day before or after an unassigned clinic day is not permitted and will result in a ten to one make up requirement. Consideration will be given to extenuating circumstances.

Students who miss more than five days from any rotation, whether excused or unexcused, are subject to administrative failure and may not receive credit for the experience in which the absences occurred. The experience must then be repeated in its entirety. Note that leave time cannot be used during medical or external podiatric clerkships.

D. Absences from Clinic

Absences from clinic are characterized as excused and unexcused. Excused absences include approved use of days off for which no makeup time is required. Students who miss clinic due to illness or emergencies must apply a portion of their leave balances to offset the missed time. That if time missed exceeds allotted vacation time, excess days must be made up and all makeup sessions must be completed in the module(s) from which the time was originally missed and must be approved in advance by the Office of the Medical Director.

Absences from clinic other than due to scheduled use of days off, sickness, or emergencies are considered unexcused. Unexcused absences must be made up at a three to one basis (e.g., the days missed plus twice that many in penalty days) except under the following circumstances:

- Unexcused absences on days prior to examinations must be made up at a five to one basis.
- Unexcused absences on examination days prior to the examination must be made up on a ten for one basis.
- Unexcused absences on the first or last two days of any Foot and Ankle Institute rotation and on the two days immediately preceding or following a holiday period must be made up on a ten for one basis.

Absences due to illness must be reported to the Office of the Medical Director and the relevant department as soon as possible. This also applies to absences from outside rotations. Failure to notify the the Office of the Medical Director of an absence due to illness will result in it being considered unexcused and require make up on a five to one basis unless a higher penalty ratio would otherwise be applicable in which case, they must be made up on a ten for one basis. In order for sickness to be considered an excused absence, medical documentation of illness may be requested. Absences that bracket weekend, holiday periods, or extend the latter require documentation to be considered excused. Failure to provide such documentation on request will result in the absences being considered unexcused in which case they must be made up on a five for one basis unless a higher penalty ratio would otherwise be applicable in which case, they must be made up on a ten for one basis.

E. Makeup Days

Students must complete all makeup days, including penalty days, before they are eligible to graduate. Students should be aware that the third and fourth academic years together make up twenty-two months of instruction. There is no scheduled downtime apart from clinic closures that may be announced from time to time, Students may not be able to make up missed days till after Commencement.

II. Rules and Regulations

A. Incompletes and/or Failing Grades

All students who do not complete scheduled rotations by their scheduled end dates will be assigned grades of incomplete "I" at the end of the clinic rotation. All incomplete and failed rotations will be reported to the Registrar and the Office of the Medical Director.

In the case of incomplete rotations, The Office of the Medical Director will notify the students that until penalty days are remediated and/or evaluation sheets and log sheets are submitted as applicable, the grade of incomplete shall remain on their academic record.

Students who fail rotations may be required to appear before the Committee on Academic and Professional Standards and, at a minimum, will have to repeat the rotation.

All incompletes and failures in clinical rotations must be satisfactorily resolved before students are able to graduate.

B. Procedures for Foot and Ankle Institute - Excused Absences, Personal Days and Makeup Sessions for Third- and Fourth-Year Students

Permission for Personal Days and Excused Absences (other than sickness or death of immediate family members) must be received in writing by the Office of the Medical Director at least one week in advance.

Sickness and death in the immediate family will require written documentation. In the absence of the medical director, only the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs with input from designated departmental clinical faculty may give permission for personal days.

III. Fourth Year Students - Externships¹

An up-to-date directory of participating externships in podiatric surgery can be found on the CASPR/CRIP webpage or by following the provided link:

<http://www.casprcrip.org/html/casprcrip/directory.asp> .

The directory is updated frequently and is the best resource for current programs. These programs serve to increase students' clinical exposure to various types of facilities within the community to provide a more meaningful institutional involvement by students in podiatric medicine. Students are afforded an opportunity to see both podiatric and medical management of patients in various types of community settings.

A. Attendance

1. Attendance is mandatory at all activities associated with the site to which you are assigned. The hours and days of office and patient care activity are determined at the discretion of the clerkship director. All absences, except for illness, must have prior approval granted by the Assistant Dean of Educational Affairs.

2. The Assistant Dean of Educational Affairs will, within limits, determine how and when student absences will be made up. If absences are not made up to the satisfaction of the Assistant Dean by the end of a month and the student otherwise has a passing grade, an "Incomplete" will be recorded as the student's grade for the rotation and the missed days must be made up prior to graduation. Any student who fails to return to TUSPM and make up any missed time may be subject to suspension or dismissal from the school.
3. Again, attendance is mandatory at all patient care activities. Unexcused absences will not be permitted and may result in a failing (F) grade for that month, in addition to a hearing by CAPS for misconduct will be requested if professional misconduct is suspected. A pattern of unexcused absences or serious breach of professional conduct could result in dismissal from the school for unprofessional conduct.

B. Total Time Out from External Rotations

Even with make-up days for excused absences, if a student misses 5 days during a 4-week rotation (even if some were personal days), then they are in jeopardy of failing and having to repeat the rotation. This is at the discretion of the Clerkship Director.

C. Office Clerkships

Office clerkships must be completed as one four-week or two two-week experiences. The clerkship requires each student to spend at least 4 weeks in the office of a private podiatric practitioner. The practitioner must be a practicing DPM in good standing with his/her state board and not associated as faculty with the College for more than 1 day per week.

D. Rules and Requirements

1. The fourth-year curriculum has been designed to provide optimal cognitive and technical development while of the residency match process. Every student is responsible for planning their own fourth year within the parameters of the scheduling process and the policies of the school.

The curriculum requires each student to successfully complete:

- a. Two base months at TUSPM's Foot and Ankle Institute.
 - b. One month Medical rotation (Infectious Disease, Neurology, Orthopedics, or Vascular Disease).
 - c. One month Office clerkship.
 - d. A minimum of 5 and maximum of 7 externships.
2. Up to 20 days of vacation is allowed depending on individual student program graduation requirements.

¹ The terms "clerkship" and "externship" are used interchangeably to denote clinical training activities that do not take place within TUSPM's Foot and Ankle Institute.

E. Biomechanics, Medicine, and Surgery Clinics

Each student must successfully complete assigned rotations in Biomechanics, Medicine, or Surgery. During these rotations, students will be required to adhere to departmental rules and regulations.

F. Administration

The management of the fourth-year curriculum is part of the responsibility of the Academic Dean. The Externship Coordinator assists with the daily administration of the externship program. The class is bound by the decisions developed through and implemented by the Academic Dean.

G. Educational Objectives

1. It is expected that the students' cognitive, technical, and analytical skills will continually improve, that the knowledge base will be broadened and deepened, and that the interpersonal skills, attitudes and values will improve through the fourth year. At the minimum, the student should be able to manage all routine cases quickly, accurately, and efficiently.
2. It is not possible to designate a common curriculum for every program. Factors affecting each experience include the patient mix at each site, the expertise of the faculty, both clinically and educationally, and the individual students' abilities. Each of these must be considered in developing an externship rotation. The following competencies must be met by a student and are the basis for student evaluation:
 - a. Performance of complete history and physical examinations.
 - b. Observe all podiatric surgery cases as assigned.
 - c. Observe/assist on all orthopedic, general surgical, general medicine procedures as assigned.
 - d. Participate/observe the post-operative management of podiatric patients under the direct supervision of the podiatric resident/physician.
 - e. Participate/observe the management of podiatric and general medicine patients under the supervision of an attending physician and resident, where applicable.
 - f. Participate in 24-hour emergency call under the supervision of the attending/resident physician as required by programs.
 - g. Attend and participate in Podiatric Grand Rounds.
 - h. Attend all rotation-related conferences, presentations, and journal clubs, as well as assigned conferences in other specialty areas.

H. Curriculum Structure

1. The fourth-year curriculum is an eleven-month (11) month program. It begins with the AACPM clerkship calendar. The curriculum has eleven (11) clinical experiences of about four-week duration following the CASPR calendar.
2. To change their externship schedule, students must receive approval from the Externship Coordinator at the office of the Academic Dean at least one month before each experience's scheduled start date. Students must obtain a written release from the program director they wish to drop and written acceptance from the program director. After obtaining these documents, students must submit them to the Externship Coordinator, who will enter the approved changes into CASPR. Students are prohibited from contacting CASPR on their own.

3. Changes to a student's finalized externship schedule will only be allowed for specific academic reasons or in highly unusual circumstances. Travel expenses, meals, car rental, housing, or other similar expenses are not valid reasons for dropping an externship. To be considered for approval, students must obtain a written release from the program they wish to drop, confirmation of acceptance by the program they wish to add, and written justification of the need to change their schedules. These must be submitted to the Academic Dean. Failure to follow this policy will result in failure to receive credit for the month's activity.
4. Externship schedule changes will be reviewed and the request either denied or approved. The Medical Director will also need to approve the change if it involves students' scheduled Foot and Ankle Institute months.
5. Problems at the Foot and Ankle Institute should be addressed between the student and the individual clinician, the Department Chair, the Medical Director, and if necessary, the Academic Dean in that order. Problems arising at externships should first be addressed with the clerkship director. The Externship Coordinator should be notified of any problems at medical clerkships. If a problem is not resolvable at these levels, the Externship Coordinator and the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs will become involved.

I. Policies

1. The following policies are to be always followed by all students during the fourth year. Failure to do so may result in a failing grade for the rotation and delay of graduation. In addition to the specific policies as written, use common sense to conduct yourself in a manner befitting a professional.
 - a. Reporting to Site/Travel Time
 - i. Students are expected to be at their sites on the first day of each experience and to remain through its last scheduled day. Arriving late or departing early from a site may negatively impact your final clinical evaluation.
 - b. Fees
 - i. Externships may require a program and/or application fees. These fees must be paid by the student performing the externship as directed by the program director.
 - c. Holidays
 - i. The holidays listed on the academic calendar for TUSPM and the Foot and Ankle Institute may not be recognized by all clerkship sites. Check with the clerkship director to determine what holidays are observed and what is expected of you.
 - d. Professional Conduct
 - i. Violation of the TUSPM Academic Standards, Professional Conduct section described in your student handbook may result in a failing grade, delaying, or preventing graduation and possibly eventuate in suspension or dismissal from the program.

J. Determination of Grades

1. Assessment of clinical performance is based on demonstrated student competency in meeting experiential objectives. Components of clinical competency encompass but are not limited to the following:
 - a. Reliability, Punctuality and Personal Appearance
 - b. Initiative
 - c. Clinical Application of Knowledge
 - d. Quality of Differential Diagnosis Reasoning
 - e. Ability to Obtain History and Physical
 - f. Attitude Toward Patients
 - g. Interpersonal Skills with Faculty, Staff and peers
 - h. Technical Proficiency
 - i. Medical Records and Presentations
2. Competence is evaluated in each of the above areas and minimum competence must be demonstrated in each to earn credit for any clinical experience. Outstanding achievement in one area does not average out an insufficient level of competence in another area. The following grades may be given:
 - a. Pass - indicating competent performance in all areas.
 - b. Incomplete - indicating competent performance in one or more of the above areas. Failed externships must be repeated at the same or another facility as designated by the Medical Director.
3. All third-year students are required to log all patients seen in the Foot and Ankle Institute and its satellite clinics using whatever system is in place at the time of their rotations. Students must log patient contacts in which they directly participated in patient care and are encouraged to also log those which they merely observed. Students whose case totals for participation in patient care are one standard deviation or more below their peers for a given rotation, adjusted for clinic volume and assigned rotation, may not receive academic credit for the rotation until the deficiency is remediated during scheduled vacation time.

College Policies – Code of Ethics

A. Introduction

Society grants to academic communities such as the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine (TUSPM) freedom of expression and the freedom of inquiry that has been found over the history of higher education in the United States to be important to education and research. In accepting these freedoms, our students accept responsibilities for upholding the standards that guide us in the exercise of these freedoms. The various and complex external controls, such as fraud and misconduct rules, that continue to evolve cannot, by themselves, guarantee high standards. The standards must be nurtured by individuals with a sense of honor, integrity, and intellectual honesty. It is incumbent upon this community to provide an environment which fosters these attributes in all its members.

By voluntarily joining the TUSPM community, we accept agreed upon principles of behavior embodied in the "Statement of Academic Integrity: Rights and Responsibilities of Students, Faculty and Administration" ("Code of Ethics"). Adherence to these principles by all students will foster an appropriate academic and professional environment.

The Code of Ethics is not an attempt to supplant a student's own sense of honor, but rather to define a minimal standard to which all will be held accountable.

B. The Code of Ethics

The Code of Ethics is not an attempt to supplant a student's own sense of honor, but rather to define a minimal standard to which all will be held accountable.

There are two basic implications in the Code of Ethics. First, it assumes that the student has such personal integrity as neither to be dishonest nor to encourage others to be dishonest. Second, it implies that the same integrity that prevents the student from being dishonest compels the students not to allow any violation of the Code of Ethics which is observed to go unchecked. The student physician will be expected to take an active role in ensuring that others, as well as himself/herself, uphold the spirit and letter of the Code of Ethics.

Each student has the responsibility to participate in the enforcement of the Code. When in the presence of a violation, a student has the responsibility to leave the area where the violation is occurring, or if appropriate, to intervene or confront the violation so that the behavior stops, and/or to contact appropriate TUSPM staff, so that the violation may be confronted. Failure to demand ethical behavior of others or failure to take appropriate action is considered a violation of the Code of Ethics in and of itself.

The responsibility of the individual student to support the Code of Ethics parallels the responsibility of the individual physician to maintain the high medical standards of the profession by persistent efforts to eliminate unethical practices of medicine. By accepting responsibility of the Code of Ethics, we confirm our intent to strive for personal integrity and to uphold the honor of our profession.

We, the TUSPM community, affirm the Code of Ethics as it appears in the current Student Handbook for all members of our community.

C. Code of Ethics Violations

We believe the following to be some examples of the types of violations of the Code of Ethics for which a student may be brought before CAPS. The types of Code of Ethics violations generally fall into one of three categories: Academic Dishonesty violations, Violations of Student Physician/Patient Relationship and Non-Academic Misconduct Violations.

D. Academic Dishonesty

1. Academic dishonesty is prohibited at the TUSPM. It is considered a serious offense because it diminishes the quality of scholarship, makes accurate evaluation of student progress impossible, and defrauds those in society who must depend on the knowledge and integrity of the institution, its faculty, and its students. Academic dishonesty is defined as obtaining or seeking to obtain an unfair academic advantage for oneself or any other student. It includes (but is not limited to) lying, cheating, stealing, or engaging in dishonest conduct in the course of or related to any academic exercise.
2. By signing the registration form at the beginning of the academic year, each student has agreed to abide by the Code of Ethics and rules of enforcement as described in the Student Handbook and established by the Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine.

E. Cheating

1. Cheating includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - a. Using or attempting to use books, notes, study aids, calculators, artificial intelligence, or any other documents, devices, or information in any academic exercise without prior authorization from the professor.
 - b. Copying or attempting to copy from another person's paper, report, laboratory work, research, computer program, or other work material in any academic exercise. This includes knowingly allowing others to copy one's own work.
 - c. Procuring or using tests or examinations or any other information regarding the content of a test or examination before the scheduled exercise, without prior authorization by the professor.
 - d. Conducting oneself in an inappropriate manner during an examination, including unauthorized communication and altering of visual aids during any academic exercise.
 - e. Discussing the contents of examinations with students who have not yet taken the examination.
 - f. Sending a substitute to take one's examination or to perform one's field or laboratory work, acting as a substitute for another student at any examination or field or laboratory assignment. This includes allowing others to conduct one's research or prepare one's work without prior authorization.
 - g. Unless otherwise instructed, failing to turn in an identified examination paper and any other distributed material prior to leaving the examination room, whether or not the exam questions have been answered.

F. Fabrication

1. Fabrication includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - a. Inventing or making up data, research, laboratory results, information, or procedures involving research or patient care.
 - b. Inventing a record or portion thereof regarding research, extracurricular activities, or clinical experiences.
 - c. Including information on one's curriculum vitae which one knows to be false.

G. Falsification

1. Altering or changing grades, returned examinations (to claim they were erroneously graded), or any other academic records.
2. Altering the record of experimental procedures, data, or results.
3. Altering the record of or reporting false information regarding research, extracurricular, or clinical experiences.
4. Claiming someone else's work as one's own or signing someone else's signature or identification on an academic record or patient's chart.

H. Plagiarism

1. Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - a. Representing the words or ideas of someone else as one's own in any academic exercise.
 - b. Submitting as one's own paper or learning assignment written by another person.
 - c. Reproducing someone else's words by written or verbal means without giving appropriate credit to that person.

I. Complicity

Complicity in Academic Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, helping or attempting to help commit an academic dishonesty violation and helping to conceal, or to allow such violation to remain concealed by not disclosing the same when the student has knowledge of such violation or reason to know of that such violation has occurred.

J. Violations of Student Physician/Patient Relationship

1. A cardinal obligation of the student physician is to respect the integrity of all patients. This includes recognizing the confidential nature of communications, both written and verbal, with the patient and with those with whom one discusses the patient's care. Conduct in any interaction concerning patients should be completely above reproach.
2. The student has an obligation to recognize that the hospital and medical records of the patients are legal documents, and that reasonable care should be taken when marking on these records. Under no circumstances should false information be recorded, items noted of which the student has no direct knowledge, or no records ever be altered.

K. Non-Academic Misconduct

1. Non-academic misconduct as used herein includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - a. Physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, embarrassment, harassment, coercion, and/or other conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, sexual abuse or harassment shall be dealt with separately under TUSPM Sexual Harassment Policy. However, the procedures for investigating and taking disciplinary action for sexual abuse or sexual harassment when the person alleged to have inflicted the abuse or harassment is a student at TUSPM shall be dealt with under this Honor Code.
 - b. Hazing, defined as an act or situation which endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student, or which destroys or removes public or private property, for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in, a group or organization.
 - c. Unauthorized possession, duplication, or use of keys to any TUSPM premises or unauthorized entry to or use of TUSPM facilities.
 - d. Use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances or alcohol, except as expressly permitted under medical supervision and as permitted by the law, possession, and use of paraphernalia to assist in use of illegal substances or being under the influence of a controlled substance or public intoxication.
 - e. Illegal or unauthorized possession of firearms, explosives, other weapons or dangerous chemicals.
 - f. Conduct, which is disorderly, lewd, or indecent; breach of peace; or aiding, abetting, or procuring another person to breach the peace on premises or at functions sponsored by, or participated in by, TUSPM.
 - g. Theft or other abuse of computer time, including but not limited to:
 - i. Unauthorized entry into a file, to use, read, or change the contents, or for any other purpose.

- ii. Unauthorized transfer of a file.
 - iii. Unauthorized use of another individual's identification and password.
 - iv. Use of computing facilities to interfere with the work of another student, faculty member, or TUSPM employee, to send obscene or abusive messages, or to interfere with the normal operations of the TUSPM computer systems.
 - h. Actual or attempted theft from or damage to TUSPM property or premises or property of a member of the TUSPM community.
 - i. Failure to comply with the direction of TUSPM officials, such as Security, Physical Facilities and Student Life staff, in the performance of their duties.
 - j. All forms of non-academic dishonesty, including knowingly furnishing false information to TUSPM, forgery, or alteration or fraudulent use of TUSPM documents, records, or instruments of identification.
 - k. Disruption or obstruction of TUSPM administration, disciplinary proceedings, or activities.
 - l. Aiding, abetting, or procuring another person to conduct a Code of Ethics violation.
- L. Financial Obligations and Refund Policy

1. Student Billing:

- a. All student invoices for tuition and fees and other miscellaneous charges are computed and e- mailed from the Office of Student Financial Services (SFS) on the 2nd floor of Carnell Hall on Temple University's main campus. Housing related charges, including rent, telephone, utilities, and other charges are computed and invoiced by the Office of Student Housing on the 4th floor of the Student Activities Center on main campus. All amounts due are payable on the due date stated on the invoice.
- b. Payments and inquiries may be made in the TUSPM Business Office located on the 6th floor of the School Building, adjacent to the Charles E. Krausz Library. The Business Office is open to students from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. You may contact the Business Office by phone at (215) 625-5401.

2. Debt Management Counseling Services:

- a. Information on budgeting and financial planning both during podiatric medical school and after can be obtained through the SFS Office. The office is also responsible for compliance of the Entrance and Exit interviewing process for students who receive Federal Student Loan Program assistance while attending school. A financial counselor will meet with students during attendance and prior to graduation to discuss rights and responsibilities under the programs, and the students' obligations in repaying all loans.

NOTE- It is an administrative policy of Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine that all medical students who are recipients of federal student loan assistance will be required to attend mandatory debt management programs as stipulated by the Department of Student Financial Services and coordinated through the Office of Student Affairs in the School of Podiatric Medicine. A hold may be placed on a student's records, which would prevent the receipt of any University services if a student fails to attend a mandatory program or fails to schedule a substitute session. This policy was developed to ensure that all student loan recipients receive quality counseling and education regarding the terms of their loans, the amounts borrowed, and their responsibility in repayment.*

3. Payment Plans

A podiatric medical school education is a big expense. The Financial Counselor in the Office of Student Affairs will work with you on planning ahead to pay your tuition bills without interrupting your education. There are two payment plans available to students to assist them in paying their tuition. A financial counselor in the Student Affairs office can work with students in determining if a payment plan is right for them. A basic description of the two plans follows.

a. Temple Easy Payment Plan

If you are unable to pay the full amount owed before the semester starts, or have demonstrated expected financial aid covering your charges, you will automatically be enrolled in the TEPP plan.

Payment of 25% of the total amount due will be required plus a $10.00 installment fee. (If you are enrolled or register within two weeks of the start of the semester the initial required payment would be 50. The balance must be paid in up to 3 more monthly installments (only two installments if you enroll during the later time period), each accompanied by a $10.00 installment fee. TEPP is interest free.

b. Temple Installment Payment

This is a 10-month pre-payment plan designed to help students meet current and future expenses totaling at least $1,000.00. There is a $45.00 annual application fee and payments begin in May. TIPP is interest free.

M. Third Party Billing

The SFS Office can assist you in coordinating your tuition payments if you are being sponsored by an outside agency. However, ultimately the third-party payee is responsible for covering your tuition bill.

N. Refund Policy:

1. Students are eligible to receive a 100 percent refund of tuition costs for any withdrawal within the first two (2) weeks of the semester. There are no refunds of tuition and fees after that time, except as outlined in the University's Tuition Refund Policy for medical reasons or death.
2. In addition, students who withdraw or take leave after the first two (2) weeks are responsible for payment of all tuition and fees. Any award of TUSPM first year and/or Merit Scholarships or Awards will be pro-rated from the first day of the semester to the date of withdraw. Students who withdraw forfeit their right to previous awards should they return to TUSPM at a later date.

O. Refund Requests:

Refunds from student loan checks or other sources of financial aid are coordinated through the SFS Office. Student Financial Services can assist you in checking on the status of your student loans, your estimated refund for living expenses, to help you plan your budget. In the event you are issued a refund check by the University, and it is lost, the SFS Office can also work with you to replace it.

P. Parking

1. A limited number of parking spaces are available to students in the lot operated for TUSPM. Parkway, Inc. manages the lot on Cherry Street, between 8th and 9th Streets. Daily parking arrangements for this lot may be made at the Parkway both, located directly adjacent to the Foot and Ankle Institute entrance

Q. Policy on Confidentiality of Student Records (F.E.R.P.A.)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") is a federal law governing privacy rights in school records to students and to dependent students' parents. FERPA assures students of two things: that they have rights to access and review school records; and that an educational institution where the students are or have been in attendance will protect the confidentiality of the students' education records.

A. To Whom Do These Guidelines Apply?

FERPA applies only to "students who are or have been in attendance at a school of [an educational] agency or . . . institution." In other words, the Act applies to students presently enrolled and to alumni, but not to applicants who have not been admitted to the University. The Act also applies only to living students or alumni; no privacy rights exist under FERPA for deceased individuals.

2. To What Records Do These Guidelines Apply?

- a. FERPA requires that the University keep as confidential records about students that contain personally identifiable information. Such records are called "education records." FERPA defines "education records" as "records, files, documents, and other materials which . . . contain information directly related to a student" and "are maintained by an educational agency or institution."
- b. The types of education records typically maintained by the University include academic records such as applications, transcripts, advising records, letters of evaluation and other personal records such as work-study and financial records. The offices which maintain such records may include the Deans' Offices of the various colleges and schools within the University and all their academic advising offices, the Registrar's Office, the Registrar's Office of the School of Law, the Office of the Dean of Students, the Career Development Office, all offices of admissions within the various schools and colleges, the Office of Financial Aid, and the Office of Student Financial Services. A listing of some of the offices responsible for maintaining education records is attached as Appendix A.

ii. FERPA was enacted in 1968 and was amended in 1990. The text FERPA, also referred to as the "Buckley Amendment," appears at 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. Federal regulations, which implement FERPA, appear at 34 C.F.R. part 99.

c. The term "education records" does not include:

- i. Personal files of faculty and administrative personnel that are in the maker's sole possession and which are not accessible or revealed to any other person except a temporary substitute.

- ii. Law enforcement records that are maintained by Temple University's law enforcement unit that were created by that law enforcement unit for the purpose of law enforcement.
 - iii. Employment records relating to a university employee who also is a student so long as the employment records relate exclusively to that individual's capacity as an employee; or
 - iv. Medical, psychiatric, or psychological records created and used only for the treatment of a student, and which are available only to those providing the treatment.
- d. The term "education records" also does not include "directory information." Directory information is information which generally would not be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Temple University defines directory information as:
- i. The student's name.
 - ii. Street address.
 - iii. E-mail address.
 - iv. Confirmation of enrollment status (full-time/part-time).
 - v. Dates of attendance.
 - vi. Degree received.
 - vii. Awards received (e.g., Dean's List);
 - viii. Major or field of study.
 - ix. Participation to officially recognized activities and sports; and
 - x. Weight and height of members of athletic teams.

Please note that, in compliance with a 1997 federal statute designed to advance military recruiting, Temple may release dates of birth to the military unless the student notifies Temple that he or she wishes this information withheld.*

Any Temple student may withhold disclosure of any or all directory information by notifying, in writing, the office of the Dean of Students within two weeks after the annual publication of the annual notices referred to in Section VIII of these Guidelines.

3. Which Records May Be Disclosed To Students?

- a. Students always have the right to review education and all other records that pertain to them with the exception of the following records:
 - i. Education records regarding another student even though that information is kept on a record containing information about the requesting student. In that situation, each student has a right to inspect only the information about himself or herself.
 - ii. Confidential evaluations of students placed in education records prior to January 1, 1975.
 - iii. Evaluations to which students have waived their right to access; and
 - iv. The financial records and related financial information of students' parents. Any

- v. University office maintaining such records shall either store such records in a file separate from records subject to review or conspicuously stamp such records.
 - v. "CONFIDENTIAL - NOT TO BE RELEASED"
- a. If a student files a request to inspect or review his or her own records for a model request, the office maintaining the records will remove documents which fall within the preceding four categories of documents from the file before producing the file to the student.
4. What Is the Procedure for A Student To Review His Or Her Records?
- a. To review education records, the student must submit a dated, written, and signed request along with proper identification to the office that maintains the records. A suggested model for this request is attached as Appendix C. A specially designated person within that office shall give the student a written confirmation of receipt of the request and shall inform the student when the requested records will be made available. The records will be made available to the student no later than 45 days after receipt of the request.
 - b. Students may waive their rights of access to confidential evaluations placed in education records after January 1, 1975, provided, however, that: (1) the student must, upon request, be notified of the name of each person who has submitted such a confidential evaluation; (2) such evaluations may be used only for the purpose intended; and (3) a waiver may not be required as a precondition of admission to the University or receipt from the University of financial aid or other services or benefits. A suggested model for this waiver is attached as Appendix B.
 - c. On the specified date, the student shall display proper identification and may inspect and review the file under the supervision of the designated person within the office having custody of the record.
 - i. If a student requests a copy of one or more of such records, the requested copies, with limited exceptions (for instance, a copy of education records for a student upon whose records a financial, academic, or disciplinary hold exists), shall be transmitted to the student upon payment of a fee often cents per page.
5. How Can A Student Seek Amendment Of His Or Her Record(S)?
- a. A student may seek amendment of the content of records on the grounds that the records are inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student's privacy or other rights. A student may not seek amendment regarding the correctness of an assigned grade; the student may only seek amendment regarding the accuracy of the recording of the grade.
 - b. A student's first step in seeking amendment of a record is to inform the person who supervised the review of the file and to try to resolve the problem through informal discussions with that person and, if necessary, with the supervisor of the office maintaining the record.
 - c. If no agreement is reached through informal discussions, the student may submit a written request for a hearing to the Office of University Counsel. That request must specify which records the student claims are inaccurate) misleading, or in violation of the privacy or other rights of the student.

- d. If the University Counsel's review of the hearing request and file does not result in agreement with the student's claim, then the Vice President for Academic Affairs shall appoint a hearing officer to preside over the matter. The appointed hearing officer must be a university official with no direct interest in the outcome of the hearing. Unless the student withdraws the request or asks for a delay, the hearing shall be held within a reasonable time of the University Counsel's receipt of the hearing request.
 - e. The hearing officer or his or her designee must give the student or the student's parent notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing reasonably in advance of the hearing. At the hearing, the student shall have the opportunity to present evidence in support of the claim. A student may be represented and/or accompanied by counsel or by anyone else the student selects. If the student chooses to bring counsel, however, the student must pay his or her own legal fees.
 - f. The hearing officer shall render a decision in writing within a reasonable period after the hearing. The decision shall be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing and will include a summary of the evidence and the reasons for the decision.
 - g. If the hearing officer denies the request for amendment, the student shall be informed of his or her right to insert in the record a written comment regarding the allegedly inappropriate information, or why he or she disagrees with the hearing officer's ultimate decision, or both.
 - h. That explanation shall be maintained as part of the student's record and shall be disclosed whenever the record is disclosed.
6. Which Records May Be Disclosed to Persons Other Than Students?
- a. Personally identifiable information generally will not be released from an education record without the student's or the dependent student's parent's written consent. The student may, however, authorize in writing the disclosure of records containing personally identifiable information to a specified class of organizations or persons. A suggested model for authorization to disclose records and waiver is attached as Appendix C. In addition, Temple University does not sell lists of names of its students or alumni, nor does it respond to requests for such lists, except upon the approval of the President or the President's designee.
 - b. Despite the general rule prohibiting disclosure without a student's consent, FERPA does authorize release of education records without the student's consent in certain limited circumstances:
 - i. to individual's seeking only directory information.
 - ii. to Temple University officials with a legitimate educational interest in seeing the records. The term "officials" generally includes faculty, administration and clerical employees who manage student record information, who act in the student's educational interest, or who have a demonstrated need to know the contents of the records. Specifically, the term "officials" includes a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff.

- iii. position; a member of the Board of Trustees; a person employed by or under contract to the University to perform a special task, such as an attorney or auditor; a person who is employed by a law enforcement unit; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or who is assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

- iv. to officials of other post-secondary educational institutions in which the student seeks enrollment or intends to enroll. In this situation, the University will make a reasonable attempt to notify the student of the intended transfer of records and shall, upon
 - i. request, give the student the opportunity to receive a copy of the records and to have a hearing, if one is requested, to seek amendment of the content of such records.
 - v. to authorized federal officials auditing or evaluating federally or state-supported education programs and to state officials to whom information from student records is required by statute to be disclosed.
- c. The University will notify the student, in writing, of the intended transfer, court order or subpoena. Only one such notice will be sent to the student's last address on file with the Registrar, or to the student's address listed on the order or subpoena, if any. It is the student's responsibility to keep a current address on file with the Registrar. Records may be disclosed to:
- i. to persons processing students' financial aid applications to determine a student's eligibility, the appropriate amount of aid, the conditions that should be set for aid, or for the enforcement of such conditions.
 - ii. to organizations conducting studies for educational agencies in connection with predictive tests, student aid programs, and the improvement of instruction. In such a situation, however, the University will ensure take reasonable steps so that (a) the study does not personally identify parents and students to anyone other than representatives of these organizations; and (b) the organizations will destroy the information when it is no longer needed for the study.
 - iii. to accrediting organizations carrying out their accrediting functions.
 - iv. to the parents of a student who is dependent on those parents for federal income tax purposes.
 - v. in an emergency, to appropriate persons if the knowledge of information from a student's records is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons.
 - vi. to comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena unless the court orders that the existence or contents of the subpoena not be disclosed. Before complying with the order or subpoena, however, the University will make a reasonable effort to notify the student of the order or subpoena.
 - vii. to an alleged victim of any crime of violence, the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by Temple University against the alleged perpetrator of such crime with respect to such crime.

- d. Records of disciplinary hearings may only be disclosed with the student's written consent, under legal compulsion, or in cases where the safety of persons is involved.
7. What Notice Must Be Given to Students That Disclosure Was Or Will Be Made To Persons Other Than Students?
- a. Consistent with Section VI, when a student's records or information from such records are disclosed to any organization, agency, or individual, a transmittal letter will be sent to the recipient of the records informing the recipient that such records or information are not to be disclosed to any other party without the prior written consent of the student. In addition, the recipient will be notified in writing that, if compliance with this requirement is not acceptable, all records must be returned unopened to the University.
 - b. Each office which maintains education records shall keep with the records of each student a form which lists, with exceptions stated below, the names of all parties who have requested or received education records, and the legitimate interests that the parties had in making the requests or obtaining the information. If the recipient indicates that he or she intends to make further disclosures that will continue to meet the requirements of FERPA, the record maintained by the University will include the names of the additional parties to which the receiving party may disclose the information and the legitimate interests that each of those additional parties has in requesting or obtaining the information.
 - c. The requirement of maintaining the form discussed in the preceding paragraph does not apply to disclosures to Temple University officials described elsewhere in this document, to the student or to the dependent student's parent or to individuals to whom disclosure has been specifically authorized by the student.
8. General Provisions
- a. These Guidelines and a copy of FERPA and of the related federal regulations that implement FERPA will be available at registration headquarters during regular registration periods. In addition, copies of the Guidelines may be found in the office of the Dean of Students in the Student Activities Center and is accessible through the Temple website (www.temple.edu).
 - b. An annual notification of rights under FERPA will be given to students in attendance at the University. At the least, this notification will consist of a notice in the "Temple News."
 - c. If a student feels that the University has failed to comply in some way with FERPA or with federal regulations implementing FERPA, and the student believes that the University has failed to answer his or her complaint satisfactorily, he or she has the right to file a complaint containing specific allegations of fact giving reasonable cause to believe that a violation of FERPA or its implementing regulations has occurred, with the Family Policy Compliance Office, United States Department of Education, Washington, D.C. 20202-4605.

Temple University Drug And Alcohol Policy

Scope of Policy: This Policy applies to all Temple University students.

A. Statement of Purpose

Temple University seeks to encourage and sustain an academic environment that both respects individual freedom and promotes the health, safety, and welfare of all members of its community. Members of the University community are expected to conduct themselves in a way they do not cause harm to themselves or others, and that they neither break laws nor contribute to the delinquency of others.

In keeping with these objectives, the University has established the following policy governing the unlawful use, consumption, possession, distribution and manufacture of illicit drugs and alcohol on university property or as part of university activities. The unlawful use of controlled substances (drugs) and alcohol misuse and abuse represent a danger to the health of a student which may result in serious injury or death, and also poses risks to the health and safety of others in the University community. Health risks associated with the use of illicit drugs and abuse of alcohol are varied. Among the many risks to the individual are brain damage, cirrhosis of the liver, cancer, ulcers, heart ailments, impotence, fetal alcohol syndrome, depression, paranoia, memory loss, blackouts, psychological and emotional problems, hypertension, eating disorders, loss of coordination, poor vision, and gastrointestinal problems.

Federal law requires the University to notify annually all students of the University's policy concerning drug and alcohol use, possible sanctions that may be imposed by the University and law enforcement agencies, the health risks associated with drug and alcohol use, and available counseling and treatment.

B. General Policy Statement on Drug and Alcohol Use

1. Temple University strictly prohibits the unlawful possession, use, consumption, distribution or manufacture of drugs and alcohol on university property, or as part of any University activity. Temple University Smoking Policy

A. Scope of Policy

The Surgeon General of the United States has determined that cigarette smoking causes over 350,000 preventable deaths annually in this country. More than 19% of all absenteeism is attributable to smoking-relating illnesses. Furthermore, numerous studies have concluded that smoking adversely affects the health of those persons who are "passively" exposed to tobacco smoke as well. Increased risk of cancer, impaired lung function, bronchitis, pneumonia, and other respiratory illnesses have been documented in individuals passively exposed to tobacco smoke. Eye irritation, nasal congestion and aggravation of existing health conditions have also been recorded in those "passively" exposed to smoking.

In view of these and similar findings and in the interest of protecting the health and well-being of the entire Temple University community, Temple University has adopted the following policy statement on smoking.

B. General Policy Statement on Smoking

Temple University is committed to providing a smoke-free environment for everyone at Temple. All University facilities are designated as non-smoking effective July 1, 1990. Effective September 1, 2003, smoking is also prohibited within 25 feet of a main entrance, exit or operable window of a university building. In addition, all indoor Temple University sponsored activities taking place in facilities not owned or operated by Temple University will be smoke-free in those areas under Temple's control.

This policy will be enforced according to established University policies and procedures.

1. Related Policies

- A. Smoking is prohibited in all University-owned vehicles.
- B. The University bans all sales of cigarettes and other tobacco products through any University- controlled unit, including vending machines.
- C. Subject to constitutional limitations, advertising of tobacco products is prohibited in Temple publications.

C. Implementation

It is the responsibility of all University students, faculty, administrators, staff and visitors to cooperate in achieving the goal of this policy.

D. Enforcement

1. The University's enforcement of the smoking policy for all students will be as follows: Smoking in University facilities is a minor violation under the University Code of Conduct. Violation of the policy on smoking will be handled in the same way as other minor violations of the Code.
2. The University's enforcement of the smoking policy for resident students in University housing facilities will be as follows:
 - a. Violations of the University's smoking policy by residential students in university housing facilities will be addressed by the residential judicial system.
 - b. Outside of University housing facilities, enforcement of the University's smoking policy for residential students will be the same as for all other students, as detailed above.
 - c. For University employees, this policy will be enforced according to applicable rules and regulations.
3. Limited Policy Exceptions

When University property is leased to another person or entity, the lease may provide for exceptions as permitted by law.

4. Effective Date

This policy statement is effective July 1, 1990.

5. Prior Related Policies

This policy supersedes and replaces all prior policies on this subject matter, including without limitation the Policy on Smoking in Pearson and McGonigle Halls, issued by the Office of the President on October 18, 1988.

Faculty and Student Relationships

The power disparity between faculty members and their students makes such relationships subject to exploitation, both actual and perceived. The respect and trust accorded a member of the faculty by a student as well as the power exercised by faculty in giving grades or recommendations for future study and employment make voluntary consent by the student suspect.

Individuals should be aware that consensual sexual or romantic relationships can result in claims of sexual harassment because the voluntariness of the consent may be questioned when a power differential exists. If a sexual harassment claim subsequently is filed, the argument that the relationship was consensual will be evaluated in light of this power differential.

Some relationships involve inherent conflicts of interest that cannot be eliminated. Therefore, sexual or romantic relationships between instructors and students currently in their classes and between faculty advisors and their current advisees are always prohibited whether or not the relationships are consensual.

With respect to relationships and conduct between students and faculty, instructors, advisors, athletic coaches and others, Temple University's Sexual Harassment Policy provides:

With reference to behavior between an instructor and students of that instructor, no instructor shall make a sexually suggestive or intimidating remark, ask a student for a date or sexual favor, or in other ways make asexual advance to the student.

While a student is a student of a particular instructor, any sort of sexual or romantic advances or relationship between the student and the particular instructor is prohibited.

A student is a student of a particular instructor:

- A. when a student is registered in a course taught by the instructor and has not yet received a final grade, or
- B. when a student is assigned to be advised by a particular instructor or academic advisor, whether the instructor is serving as an undergraduate advisor, graduate advisor, or member of a thesis or dissertation committee, or
- C. at other times when an instructor has a relationship with a student such that a student's activities at the university are being supervised or evaluated by the instructor, or
- D. at other times when an advisor, athletic coach, physician, laboratory operator or other similar individual has a relationship with a student such that the student's activities at the university are being supervised or evaluated by that person. The relationships covered by this paragraph include, but are not limited to, medical residents and physicians and student members of athletic teams and Athletic Department coaches.

There are, in addition, faculty/student relationships that are less clear because, although the faculty member does not have direct responsibility for the student, the faculty member may indirectly affect the student's academic evaluation or career opportunities. Such situations exist, for instance, when a faculty member serves on the fellowship committee in a graduate student's department. In such cases, careful adherence to the following ethical principles is required:

1. an instructor must desist from expressions of sexual or romantic interest if there is any indication that such interest is unwelcome by the student,
2. no instructor may indicate, explicitly or implicitly, that an academic reward or punishment could result from the student's reaction to an instructor's sexual or romantic advances,
3. if a consensual sexual and/or romantic relationship develops between a student and instructor, the instructor should not thereafter take part in any activity that involves evaluation of the student's academic work or progress, without prior permission by the student's dean for good cause shown.

Any person who feels he or she has been subject to harassment in violation of this policy or otherwise believes that a violation of this policy has occurred can make an informal complaint to the Associate Dean for Finance and Administration, the Dean, or any Sexual Harassment Ombudsperson (a list of Ombudspersons may be found on the Temple University website at www.temple.edu/eoc/ombudspersons.htm). A formal complaint may be made by contacting the Office of Equal Opportunity Compliance.

All members of the Temple University community must review and abide by Temple University's Sexual Harassment Policy and the Policy on Preventing and Addressing Discrimination and Harassment, located on the Temple University Policies website at policies.temple.edu. Relationships between student workers and Temple University employees (including faculty) is subject to Temple University's policy on Conflict of Interest: Employment of Relatives, Nepotism and Consensual Romantic Relationships, Section 11.6.

Anti-harassment, Including Sexual Harassment

Temple University is committed to creating and maintaining an educational and work environment free of all forms of harassment, including harassment based on an individual's age, color, disability, marital status, national or ethnic origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, or veteran, familial, or domestic or sexual violence victim status.

The university advises each member of the university community that harassment is prohibited both by law and by university policy. In the event an employee or a student believes he or she is being harassed outside the Temple University environment by another Temple University employee or student, Temple University will make every effort to assist the individual in reporting the conduct to appropriate authorities.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, dissemination of sexually offensive or suggestive written, recorded or electronically transmitted messages, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or status in a course, program or activity.

submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for an employment-related, educational or other decision affecting an individual.

such conduct substantially interferes with an individual's work, educational performance or equal access to the university's resources and opportunities.

such conduct creates an intimidating, hostile or abusive work or educational environment.

Any employee or student engaging in any type of harassment in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or dismissal from the podiatric medical program.

Any supervisor who has knowledge of such behavior yet takes no action to end it and/or report the conduct to the Office of Equal Opportunity Compliance and/or the Human Resources Department is also subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Retaliatory actions will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. A copy of the Sexual Harassment Policy is located on the Temple University Policies website at policies.temple.edu.

Temple University Aids Policy

Education

Consistent with its educational mission, Temple University will implement coordinated, University-wide educational programs concerning HIV infection and AIDS. The programs will emphasize the importance of prevention and precautions; that the virus is not casually transmitted; proven modes of transmission; the need for confidentiality for those infected and compassion for those ill; and University and community resources for information, testing, and treatment. These programs will be designed to reach the broad spectrum of persons within the University community.

Non-Discrimination

Consistent with its existent non-discrimination policies, Temple University will not discriminate based on an individual's HIV status.

Specifically, no person shall be subject to adverse employment actions solely because of no- job related handicap, and reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate an employee with HIV disease consistent with the then-current state of scientific knowledge on transmission of the disease; nor shall any person be denied academic admission, access to Temple University programs, facilities events, services, or any benefits provided by the University solely based on HIV status. HIV status shall be deemed to include actual or perceived HIV positively, or any condition related to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), an individual's being suspect of having such virus or conditions, or an individual's association with any person having or believed to have said virus or conditions.

Consistent with its existent non-discrimination policies, Temple University's policy of non-discrimination shall be applied to all instances described above except in those instances when it shall be determined that reasonable accommodations are not available to insure a person's ability to participate fully in programs or positions, or when a person by reason of his/her HIV infection or AIDS related condition poses, according to available medical information, a direct threat to the health or safety of themselves or others associated with the University.

HIV Testing

Temple University will require no test for or verification of the HIV status of any person for employment, academic admissions, access to Temple University programs, facilities, events, services, or for any benefits provided to university employees or students. Tests conducted for HIV diagnostic purposes by any University health care facility should occur only with written informed consent and with pre-and post-test counseling.

Confidentiality

Temple University shall, consistent with applicable law, maintain the confidentiality of all University records documenting and information concerning the HIV status or AIDS related conditions of university students and employees to the same degree that confidentiality is afforded to other medical records of University students and employees.

The University recognizes that a person's HIV status is a private matter. Therefore, any necessary internal and external communications regarding benefits, reasonable accommodations or other issues relating to an employee or student's HIV status or AIDS related conditions shall be made in a manner consistent with the confidentiality of such information.

Temple University HIV Policy and Procedure Committee

The Temple University HIV Policy and Procedure Committee, as appointed by the President, will meet on an ongoing and as needed basis so that the University will remain responsive to the changing nature of the epidemic.

The Committee will meet to consider additional policies, evaluate procedures, and resolve problems which may emerge as the AIDS epidemic intensifies; and to evaluate and oversee the educational programs.

The Committee will be comprised of administrators, faculty, staff, students, University Counsel and Health Sciences representatives, including persons expert in infectious diseases.

REPORTING PROCEDURES

All injuries to employees should be reported immediately to their supervisors. If the supervisor is not available, it should be reported to the office of the Director of Business Affairs. Student injuries should be reported to the faculty member in charge of the class or clinic assignment. If they are not available, it should be reported to the Director of Student Affairs.

An incident report should be completed by the supervisor. The Incident Report is obtained from Kim Flood (Risk Manager) or Nikki Scullon (Clinic), completed and returned to Risk Manager.

The staff/faculty in the Foot and Ankle Institute may only administer First Aid Care. If care is required beyond those measures, the injured person will be sent to Temple University Hospital's emergency room.

All injuries involving blood exposure from another individual e.g., patient needle stick or splatter should be handled in similar fashion. Blood exposure incidents require special forms to be completed. Please see TUSPM risk manager or Foot and Ankle Institute Clinic Director for assistance. Blood exposure injuries are treated initially at Temple University Hospital Occupational Health or Temple University Hospital emergency room. Follow up is at Student Health. Students, you must present your insurance card at the time of treatment.

Channels of Communication and Student Complaint Policy

Whenever an individual or class is confronted by a problem, there is a meaningful and proper avenue through which all relevant discussion can be channeled. These three categories will help to differentiate the proper source of relief for problems.

A. School Policies, Rules and Regulations

1. Class Committee, Faculty Advisors
2. Class Officers
3. PPMSA
4. School Advisory Committee

B. Personal and General Problems

1. Student Facilitator and Big Brothers/Sisters
2. Group Faculty Advisors
3. Appropriate Student Affairs Office Staff Members
4. Assistant Dean for Student Affairs

C. Curriculum and Class Content

1. Class Committee
2. Course Professor
3. Faculty Advisor
4. Department Chairman
5. Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs
6. Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

Please note, the steps, as presented, do not preclude going directly to one of the deans, particularly if the problem involves personal concerns.

Student Complaint Policy

The school has established the protocol below to address student concerns, questions, and complaints. The use of this policy will help to improve communications and the overall academic environment. It will provide a simple mechanism for responding to legitimate issues raised by students. In addition, it will help to ensure the integrity of the established policies and procedures of the school.

A. Informal Procedure For Addressing Student Questions, Concerns Or Complaints

1. If a student has a question or concern, he/she should first discuss the matter with the individual who is directly responsible for the problem or administering the area of concern. If the issue is not resolved, then the student should discuss it with the appropriate supervisor, and then, if necessary, with the Associate Dean responsible for that area.

Examples:

A problem in a course should first be discussed with the course director, then the department chairperson, next the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs and finally the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Questions about tuition bills should be discussed with the Assistant Director of Business Affairs.

- i. If a student is uncertain about the appropriate individual to contact, he/she should discuss the matter with the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs or the Director for Student Affairs who will indicate the proper chain of command.
 - ii. Problems relating to an area covered by an existing School policy will be handled by the protocol outlined for that policy.
 - iii. In the case in which an informal complaint is unresolved following the meeting with the Associate Dean, it may then be handled as a formal complaint. In this instance a written and signed complaint should be submitted to the appropriate Associate Dean. The Associate Dean will investigate the matter and then present the issue to the Senior Officers group for discussion and to determine what action, if any, is required. The student will be informed of the nature of the action in writing within 30 calendar days.
- b. Procedure For Addressing Formal Complaints
- i. Written and signed complaints of a substantive nature relating to the quality of the institution, or its academic program should be submitted to the Assistant Dean for Educational Affairs. These complaints will be forwarded to the appropriate Associate Dean.

- ii. The Associate Dean will investigate the matter and determine what if any action is required. The Associate Deans may discuss the issue with the Administrative Council prior to determining a course of action. The Associate Dean will reply to the student in writing within 30 calendar days. A copy of this response as well as the original complaint will be on file in the Office of Educational Affairs.
- iii. All employees of the school, including faculty, administrators and executives are encouraged to respond courteously, promptly and with the intent to explain or resolve the issue or problem. If the individual receiving the complaint lacks the ability or authority to address the issue, he/she should refer the student to the individual with the first level of authority and the ability to deal with the problem.
- iv. Students are encouraged to state the complaint clearly and constructively with the understanding that the length of time required for a response will vary depending on the complexity of the issue.

CHE/MSA Complaint Policy

The Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association (CHA/MSA) has adopted a procedure to process complaints submitted to the Commission against affiliated institutions. A copy of this policy is available in the Office of Educational Affairs, ext. 5252 or may be obtained by request from the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, 3624 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104, (215) 662-5606.

HEALTH INSURANCE

It is very important to have Health Insurance.

Please note paying the University Services Fee does not mean you have Health Insurance.

You must Waive or Enroll in the Insurance Plan EVERY YEAR!!!

Health Insurance Options include:

Your Parents' Insurance Plan: Some students are covered under their parents' insurance plan as long as they are full-time students under the age of 26. You should encourage your parents to keep you on their plan, even if they ask you to contribute to the expense.

In addition, if you are from out-of-the-area, you should check with your insurance company to see if they would cover medical expenses incurred in the Philadelphia area.

You should ask for a copy of your insurance card so that you can show it when you go for care.

University-Sponsored Health Insurance Plans: Temple offers University-sponsored health insurance plans. Please visit the Human Resources website (to waive or enroll) or call 215-926-2270 for more information.

If you choose an HMO plan, you can still see Student Health Services (SHS) for routine care. However, you will also need to choose a non-SHS primary care provider (PCP). This provider will need to approve any specialist, lab work, or x-ray referrals in order for your insurance to pay the associated costs.

Low-Cost Insurance Plans: If you cannot afford the student insurance offered by Temple University, there are other programs providing low-cost insurance coverage to uninsured or unemployed people.

Some community resources can help you understand what you may be eligible for, including:

Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare: Office of Medical Assistance Programs \(for PA residents\) (717) 787-1870

APPENDIX D: SGA AWARDS

1. APMSA NATIONAL OUTSTANDING PODIATRIC MEDICAL STUDENT AWARD:

The APMSA has adopted a nationally renowned award that will be given to one Podiatric Medical Student of the eight colleges, based on a set of criteria and awarded by a selection committee.

a. BACKGROUND OF THE AWARD

- i. To be considered for this award, the third year student must be nominated from a fellow third year student, a clinician, or a member of the faculty (essentially, the individuals who have had the most contact with the student in their didactic and clinical portions of education).
- ii. A nomination form must be completed, which consists of questions and a brief description as to why the third year student should be the recipient of such an award.
- iii. Upon nomination, if the students selected wish to be considered for the award, they must submit a copy of their CV/Resume to the SGA President, who will be the head of the selection committee.
- iv. A committee will discuss the five students who receive the most nominations. The committee will include the SGA Executive Board along with 3 Faculty members or clinicians that will change on a yearly basis. This committee will then select three of these students, who they feel strongly exemplifies the qualities required for nomination.
- v. The three finalists' names, along with a brief description of those nominees, will be released to the all current TUSPM students, faculty, and clinicians who cast their vote for one of the three finalists.

b. CRITERIA

- i. Professionalism/Accountability – student attends guest lectures, attends class/college events, class/clinic etiquette, timeliness with class/clinic, interaction with fellow classmates and faculty
- ii. Involvement with College and University - activities within the college: organizations, clubs, committees, SGA, extracurricular activities (intramural sports, etc); any positions held
- iii. Community Involvement - clubs, college/class involvement, university, self-led activities.
- iv. Contribution and dedication to the profession - club events/guest speakers, hill visits, high school presentations, community awareness.

c. PROCEDURE

- i. In order to successfully achieve consistency and fairness on a national level, all eight Podiatric Colleges must enact a similar award with the same criteria and nomination process.
- ii. The SGA Presidents of the colleges will be the coordinators to ensure these standards are followed and adopted at their respective institutions. The respective Podiatric Colleges can determine what type of award would be given to the student recipient at their own college. At TUSPM, the winner will be awarded a plaque with the recognition of “TUSPM Student of the Year” and a scholarship in the amount of $500 (five hundred) dollars.

- iii. Once the winner from each school has been selected, their name must be submitted to the APMSA Executive Board. Each SGA President must submit the name of the school's nominee, their CV, questionnaire page, nomination form, and an essay completed by the nominee about a topic that is announced each year by the APMSA President's Committee.
- iv. The APMSA Presidents' Committee will conduct a vote for the National Recipient at an APMSA bi-annual meeting based upon the aforementioned criteria and submitted forms.
- v. The National Recipient will receive national recognition and must submit a professional picture for publication purposes. The APMSA will then determine a scholarship reward to be given to the National Recipient.
- vi. All eight final nominees will be acknowledged nationally through podiatric publications such as First Step, APMSA news, etc, as the APMSA committee sees fit.

d. STATEMENT

- i. By implementing a national award across all eight colleges of Podiatric Medicine we are encouraging unity and strength within the Podiatric Profession in an effort to award leadership, community outreach, and marked professionalism. This Outstanding Student Award not only acknowledges students at a local level, but also recognizes one student as a National recipient of this prestigious award.

e. TIMELINE

- i. The timeline of paperwork submission, gathering a voting committee, and announcement of the award is the responsibility of the President and must align and comply with any deadlines set forth by the APMSA. APPENDIX E: ELECTIONS PROCEDURE

The following is a protocol for SGA elections, class elections and club elections. Individual Class Councils may have specific procedures that must be followed.

1. At the beginning of the semester, the Chair of the Election Committee must obtain a list of all class members for each year as well as a list of all club members from the individual club Presidents.
2. Fourteen days before an election, the Chair for the Election Committee must post a sign-up sheet for positions in the third floor lounge or in the individual classrooms.
3. The Chair of the Election Committee must remove the sign-up sheet 24 hours, or one day before the election. Only individuals listed on the sign-up sheet will be considered for the elections.
4. The Chair of the Election Committee will ensure that all individuals running for a position have spoken with the individual who currently holds the position for which they are running, or else they will not be permitted to run for said position.
5. The Chair of the Election Committee will relay to each candidate that they are to comply with protocol as detailed in the Constitution and any stipulations regarding elections as proposed by the leader in the current office as well as the SGA.
6. The Chair of the Election Committee will ensure that all individuals running for a position have attended at least once SGA meeting before permitting them to run for said position.
7. The Chair of the Election Committee and two other Election Committee members are required to be at SGA Executive Officer Elections. The presence of the SGA President or President-Elect is required at all other elections.
8. The Chair of the Election Committee must prepare voting ballots with candidate names on them as well as a signature list in order to monitor the amount of people who attend the election.
9. On the day of the election, the Chair of the Election Committee and the Election Committee members must conduct the election in a timely and fair manner.
10. All elections are to be recorded either by video, audio, or both media.
11. Only the Election Committee members and/or SGA Executive Council members are allowed to hand out ballots to students attending the election. Each individual receives only one ballot sheet.
12. The order of names on the ballot will be the order in which candidates deliver their speeches if a speech is required for their elected position.
13. Each candidate will be allotted a period of 5 minutes for a speech. All candidates running for the same position must leave the room during another candidate's speech.
14. At the end of the candidate's speech, class members and club members are able to ask questions. The Elections Committee will determine the number of questions posed to candidates for each elected position. Questions must be directed to all candidates running for the same position in the same manner. The Elections Committee should take extra care to impart to the audience the importance of relevant and applicable questions.
15. All persons taking part in the voting process must be present for the duration of the elections and speeches. No students will be permitted to enter the room once the speeches have begun and no student can leave before the conclusion of all speeches. Otherwise, their vote will not be counted.
16. Only the Elections Committee members will collect ballots and they must match the number of votes to the number of signatures on the sign-in sheet.

17. If the signature count does not match the ballot count, the Chair of the Election Committee should immediately speak with the SGA President or President-Elect to rectify the situation. In this instance, an immediate re-vote may be called. If the signature count does match the ballot count, the Election Committees members will proceed to tally the votes and determine the outcome of the election.
18. The Chair of the Election Committee will post the outcome following the election in the third floor lounge, classrooms, etc. within one (1) week of the elections.
19. The Chair of the Election Committee will report the outcome of the elections to the SGA President who will then alert the SGA Executive Secretary. The Executive Secretary then distributes the results to the student body.
20. Results of the individual elections will be recorded in this Appendix, which will be kept, along with the official ballots, by the Chair of the Election Committee for at least two weeks. The Chair of the Elections Committee must produce both the election(s) results and the respective ballots upon request by the Executive Council and/or the candidates who were involved in the respective election.
21. Candidates may inquire about the total number of votes attributed to them within two weeks of the election. The information they receive must be in the format of how many votes they received out of how many votes were casted overall for their election.

APPENDIX F: ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER SUMMARY

MOTIONS: SGA members express opinions and comments during official meetings by moving to make a motion. A motion is a proposal or issue that the entire voting membership may choose to take action or a stand on. Individual members can: Call to Order, Second Motions, Debate Motions, and Vote on Motions.

THE 4 GENERAL TYPES OF MOTIONS

1. Main Motions - The purpose of a main motion is to introduce items to the membership for their consideration. They cannot be made when any other motion is on the floor and yield to privileged, subsidiary, and incidental motions.
2. Subsidiary Motions - Their purpose is to change or affect how a main motion is handled and is voted on before a main motion.
3. Privileged Motions - Their purpose is to bring up items that are urgent about special or important matters unrelated to pending business.
4. Incidental Motions - Their purpose is to provide a means of questioning procedure concerning other motions and must be considered before the other motion.

PRESENTING A MOTION

1. Obtain the Floor
2. Make your Motion - State the motion affirmatively, say "I move that we..."
3. Wait for a Second to your Motion - A motion must be seconded by a voting member of SGA for it to continue to a vote. The Chair will ask the house, "Do I have a second?"
4. Re-statement of the Motion by the Chair - Once the motion has been made and seconded; the Chair will re-state the motion in its entirety for the House.
5. Debate and Discussion - this gives the presenter an opportunity to expand on the motion made if necessary and allows for all comments and debates to ensue. The time limit established for the debate and discussion period will be adhered to. The mover is always allowed to speak first.
6. Putting the Question to the Membership - After the time limit has passed or if there is no debate and discussion to be had, the Chair will ask "Are you ready to vote on question?" and a vote will be taken.

VOTING ON A MOTION:

The method of vote on any motion depends on the situation and the by-laws of policy of the SGA.

1. By Voice - the Chair asks those in favor to say, "aye" and those opposed to say "nay." Any member may move for a division and thus an exact count
2. By Roll Call - Each member answers "yes or no" as his/her name is called. This method is used when a record of each person's vote is required.
3. By General Consent - When a motion is not likely to be opposed, the Chair says, "if there is no objection..." The membership shows agreement by their silence, however, if one member says "I object," the item must be put to vote
4. By Ballot - Members write their votes on a slip of paper. This method is used when secrecy is required.

OBTAINING THE FLOOR:

This is accomplished by raising your hand and being recognized by the Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian will note the name of the individual who wishes to obtain the floor and the Chair will go down the list of those interested in speaking. No member may speak a second time until all other members of the house that wish to speak have had the opportunity to do so.

DEBATE:

Debate on an issue, report or motion cannot begin until the Chair has opened the “Debate and Discussion” portion of the issue, report or motion. At this time those wishing to debate will “Obtain the Floor” following proper protocol and the Debate will ensue. Debate and discussion will continue for a maximum of 5 minutes per issue, report or motion. Once the 5 minutes have elapsed the debate will end and if necessary the “Question Will Be Called.” However, a member of the house can make a motion to extend the “Debate and Discussion” period for the issue, report or motion and the House will vote on that motion.

CALL TO QUESTION:

This brings the topic of the vote to be brought to vote. A motion to Call the Question of a topic that needs to be voted upon must be seconded. Once it has been seconded, the Call to Question will be voted upon, meaning the House will vote on whether to continue discussion or call the issue and the house will vote on the issue following proper protocol for Voting on a Motion. If the Call to Question does not pass, debate and discussion on the issue will continue.

POINT OF INFORMATION:

At any time, a member of the House may establish a “Point of Information” in order to speak on an issue where they can add additional information. An example of Point of Information would be to ask how much money is in the bank account when voting on a motion which involves spending.

POINT OF CLARIFICATION:

At any time, a member of the House may establish a “Point of Clarification” where they can clarify a question or report for the person that is speaking or where they can ask for a clarification of what is being discussed. An example would be clarification of a motion or discussion about a motion. If a person has made a comment about a motion that you do not understand, you could ask for a Point of Clarification.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE:

At any time, the Chair can take a point of personal privilege to speak. The President of SGA is the only person with this right. An example of its use would be to pause a meeting that is running long and ask the council if they would like a break.

POLITICAL-ACTION COMMITTEE (APMA PAC)

The APMA PAC is the national political lobbying organization, functioning to educate and lobby the legislative bodies of the federal government. It is through the PAC's efforts that the voices of podiatry are heard. In short, APMA PAC helps podiatry and, therefore, helps students and their future by taking the fight directly to Congress. The importance of APMA PAC is evident, its existence and effectiveness rely entirely upon donations.

Students of TUSPM assume an active role in supporting the PAC by organizing fundraising events to help meet the expenses incurred in its operation.

APPLICANT ADMISSIONS COMMITTEE

Members orient prospective students by giving tours and discussing various aspects of podiatric medical education.

BIG SIBLING PROGRAM

This program pairs an incoming first year student with a current second year student in an effort to facilitate a seamless transition into the podiatric program. Additionally, the program also allows the new student to seek counsel, advice, or problem solving from their "Big Sibling" throughout the duration of their years at TUSPM. The TUSPM "Diabetes Awareness" Club strives to educate its members about diabetes through dynamic outreach projects and academic forums so that they can be empowered to educate their local communities. We reach out to the community via our monthly lecture series and workshops, the Step Out Walk for Diabetes, National Diabetes Month activities, the Tour de Cure, World Diabetes Day, and the Donovan McNabb Camp for children with diabetes.

TUSPM CHRISTIAN PODIATRIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION (CPSA)

We are a group that is nationally affiliated with the Christian Medical and Dental Association, which has a membership of over 15,000 medical doctors, dentists and podiatrists. Our mission statement is to use the podiatric profession and the message of the gospel to serve those around us. This includes volunteer activities and weekly meetings where we discuss a range of topics from ethical issues challenging the medical profession to how faith and medicine coexist and influence one another.

TUSPM RADIOLOGY CLUB

The Radiology Club at TUSPM is a student chapter of the American Society of Radiologists. The goal of the club is to present pathologic states and trauma states in the clinical setting of commonly presenting radiographic features. This is to be an adjunct to the lectures and information disseminated in the second year Radiology class and gives more of a clinical feeling to this information. Case studies, group discussion and review of roentgenographs, CT scans and MRI studies are used to augment the discussions

Presentations by outside speakers and faculty are primarily encouraged to cover topics not stressed, if any, in the Radiology class. Presentation by student members are also encouraged, as the ensuing externship and residency year(s) will require such presentations. Practice in public speaking and using slides, overhead transparencies and films in a coherent and intelligent manner provides invaluable experience for such presentations.

COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB

The TUSPM Community Service Club coordinates activities, programs and events which promote the betterment of the community and active participation of its club members. Volunteer events are aimed at supplying aid to a wide variety of organizations, not only in Philadelphia, but other surrounding areas including New Jersey as well. We emphasize the importance of both students and professionals of the health care system to give back to society and help those less fortunate.
